HOOVER TO DISCIPLINE FOOD MEN WHO TRIFLE

Twenty Basic Food Products to Be Included in License System Gives Govt. Control

WANTS REDUCTIONS IN RETAIL PRICES

Plans to Get Foods to Small Retailer at Reasonable Figure; Leave Profit to Public

Twenty basic food products will be included in the government's first big smash at retail food prices. Absolute control, in the form of a license system, will be assumed Thursday.

To prevent the possibility of speculating causing excessively high prices on foods placed in storage, the food administration today announced regulations to govern all cold storage warehouses in the country. All will be placed under license on November 1, and they will be required to report to all foods stored.

Hoover's regulations provide that poultry, eggs, butter and fresh water fish which have been in storage for thirty days or more cannot be represented or advertised as fresh and must not be offered for sale without being marked clearly with a placard with the words, "cold storage goods."

Laws to this effect are in force already in some states, but the sweeping rules made by Hoover now cover the whole country. It will not be possible for warehouses to store any food products which are diseased, tainted or otherwise unfit for human consumption. All fresh meat and fresh meat products, fresh fish, game, poultry, eggs and butter must be plainly marked with the date on which they are placed in storage and the date of release from storage.

WAREHOUSE MUST PAY TO BE DEALERS

A further rule requires that warehouses must be classified as "public" or "private" and that a warehouse which not only receives goods to be stored for others but stores goods on its own account must be licensed as a dealer, in order that its transactions in food may be regulated by the food administration.

Hoover expects to effect material reductions in the retail prices of the foods involved by the first of the year. He hopes to do this by eliminating waste and excess profits in the import, manufacture, storage and distribution of twenty products.

His plan is to see that these foods reach the small retailer at reasonable prices, tell the public what the dealers paid for the goods and depend on the public to prevent retailers charging more than a fair profit. The retailer charging excessive profits will find himself unable to buy from the wholesalers.

This, the food administration pointed out today, is the only way the problem can be met, as the food control law does not give the government jurisdiction over retailers doing less than $100,000 worth of business annually. Retailers doing that much business will be licensed and controlled.

LICENSES TO BE ISSUED BY FIRST

All meat packers, cold storage men, millers, canners and grain dealers will have to get a government license between now and November 1 or quit business. The food administration will see that all producers have a free outlet, and it is ready to market the products, that all manipulation and speculation in these foods is stopped at once, that there is no hoarding of supplies and that there are no unfair or unreasonable profits anywhere in the line. Wholesale grocers, in conference here last week, agreed to aid Hoover.

Licensed men or firms caught conspiring to prevent enforcement of the food control law will be subject to $10,000 fine or imprisonment for two years, or both.

Licensed men or firms caught manipulating the market, speculating, hoarding or profiteering, will be subject to $5000 fine or two years in prison or both.

A special legal department has been organized by the food administration to make these measures effective. Those licensed must make reports to the government on certain forms every week, telling just what they have done. If the facts do not tally

HERTLING GIVEN MICHAELIS JOB AS CHANCELLOR

AMSTERDAM, Oct. 30.—Count George von Hertling, the Bavarian prime minister, has been appointed imperial chancellor.

Former Chancellor Michaelis has been named prime minister of Prussia.

Count von Hertling is at present premier to Bavaria. Recent despatches have mentioned him repeatedly as being under consideration as German premier. He is now in Berlin, having arrived for a conference with the kaiser on Sunday.

Von Hertling is a pan-German and Junker supreme. He is one of the oldest German statesmen and has repeatedly given evidence of arrogant contempt for all government for the people.

LONDON, Oct. 30.—In the House today Chancellor Bonar Law said that in the period of July 22 to September 22 the daily average expenditure of the British government was $6,414,000.

Joint Peace Only Solution, Russ Are Told

BY ASSOCIATED PRESS LEADERS WIRE TO TRIBUNE

PETROGRAD, Oct. 30.—Foreign Minister Terestchenko, in addressing the preliminary parliament, said a separate peace was impossible and that defense of Russian territory was one of the fundamental needs.

The foreign minister said the absolute independence of Courland and perhaps of Estonia and Latvia was impossible, as it would mean that Russia would return to the days before Peter. He also asserted complete demobilization, disarmament and neutralization of canals and straits were impossible.

Russia's foreign policy had not changed, the minister continued, since the first statement enunciating the principles of no indemnities, no annexations and the right of nations to self-determination.

The people must understand that the war is being carried on not by governments, but by nations," he added. "As the nations began the fighting, so they must end it. Russia and France first held back the foe, and so they continue."

Terestchenko declared that the offer for a separate peace and the sentiment in favor of them were strongest last May when they were followed by the Russian offensive. "There is a rumor that the allies wished to leave Russia to her fate," the foreign minister continued, "but I state definitely that it is untrue. Germany's aim is to separate Russia from the allies, and if possible, to do this by peaceful means, in order to use Russia economically afterward. She looks upon Russia as her market. Therefore, the defense of Russian territory is one of the fundamental needs now, for if Germany gets into Russia commercially after the war we shall have no self-definition afterward."

QUOTE M. LUTHER

AMSTERDAM, Oct. 30.—On the occasion of the four hundredth anniversary of the Reformation, the German Evangelical League launches from Wittenburg a manifesto in which the militant sayings of Martin Luther are applied at random to present-day events. The manifesto rejects pacifism and thunders against the Pope's peace proposals.

CENSOR HIDES IDENTITY OF LOCAL HERO

Carried in From Zone of Death by California Soldier After He Has Suffered Fatal Wounds

Young Landsturm, Shot As He Is Bearing Messages, Succumbs Despite Surgeons

An Oakland boy, whose name is withheld by the censors, figured in the initial excursion of a United States contingent over No Man's Land, which resulted in the first enemy death by an American bullet—that of a 19-year-old Landsturm, an American field hospital behind the lines. The Oakland lad and a companion from El Paso, Texas, both members of an American ambulance corps, brought the wounded German soldier in from the death zone after an exchange of shots in the dark.

The story of the first death by an American bullet, reached here over the cables from the American field headquarters in France today. It is the first verified death reported at the hands of the American contingent and has caused considerable speculation among the parents and friends of various local boys who enlisted, as they were, in the United States army.

CAPTURE ONE OF TWO BOCHE SOLDIERS

"Two Americans were out 'over the top' under cover of darkness and rain one recent night when they sighted two moving figures. The shadowy forms fled. Both Americans fired. One Boche escaped, but the other fell. In two jumps the Americans were on him, finding the surprised Teuton nursing a badly shattered arm. He was escorted back to the trenches."

"An American ambulance stumbled along the treacherous and slippery road, under occasional shell fire, to the dressing station. There the German had been temporarily bound up. He was lifted aboard the ambulance by two Americans—one from El Paso, Texas, the other from Oakland, Cal.

The American ambulance slid and scudded back to the field hospital. There a Texas surgeon operated at once on the prisoner. For a time he seemed to be progressing nicely, but the wound had been infected and gangrene developed. American surgeons did their utmost to save his life, but in vain.

HE IS ONE OF MANY CALIFORNIANS AT FRONT

"The prisoner said he was delivering mail to his comrades and got mixed up in taking a short cut across No Man's Land."

Quite a number of Oakland lads are at the French front with the American ambulance units. The secrecy which the government has maintained in regard to the movements of troops and the placing of the various relief detachments has made it practically impossible to obtain a complete list of those in active service, where the episode occurred. Unless the censor relaxes and releases the name of the boy who took part in the episode it may be many weeks before his identity is learned.

U. S. Troops Fight in Deep Mud Rain Is Liberty Lad's First Enemy War Correspondent Visits Trenches

By Newton C. Parke, By International News Service.

AMERICAN FIELD HEADQUARTERS IN FRANCE, Oct. 30.—Battling the helmet but not injuring the man, this easily convinced the men that the helmets should never be removed. The men assigned to night patrol duty only in muddy No Man's Land were moving silently forward to the first line as the party returned. Thus far they said the members of their battalion had encountered no Germans, although all had heard of the capture of a German prisoner by another sector.

"They were all anxious to give details of the capture, but regretted very much that they did not land the first 'Boche.'"

They are satisfied with the honor of being the first Americans to enter the battle line in Europe under the Stars and Stripes. The American batteries were still firing as we made our way back in utter darkness, while spurts of flame were lighting up the distant skyline like distant flashes of lightning, while the shells were whining over head.

The Germans were not replying to the American shots.

LONDON, Oct. 30.—London is rejoicing today over the utter failure of the air raid attempted on south-east counties last night by Germany.

When the warnings were issued searchlights were brought into play and the anti-aircraft guns were so active that the enemy failed even to penetrate the outer defenses.

HAIG DEALS ANOTHER SMASHING BLOW ON TOTTERING WEST FRONT

BY UNITED PRESS LEADERS WIRE TO TRIBUNE

LONDON, Oct. 30.—Field Marshal Haig struck another powerful ground-swinging blow against the German line in Flanders today.

"North of the Ypres-Roulers railway we attacked at 5:40 o'clock this morning," he reported. "Good progress was made."

The Ypres-Roulers railway crosses the Passchendaele ridge just a little to the south of Passchendaele. Haig's general direction of the drive today would seem to indicate that the British have struck forward out of Passchendaele directly toward Roulers, which is only six miles distant from where the British lines were advanced on the morning of the British drive last week.

The immediate objective of all the recent British smashes in Flanders has been this city of Roulers. It is one of the railroad centers on the main line of communications connecting the Flanders line with the German submarine bases of Ostend and Zeebrugge on the coast.

GERMANS DRIVEN BACK 1000 YARDS

The Germans have been driven back in places to a depth of nearly 1000 yards in today's British drive on the Ypres front, Reuters' correspondent at British headquarters reports.

The principal fighting is taking place toward the outskirts of Passchendaele and in the region of Poelcapelle. The British are reported to have fought their way along several important parts of the German system of ridges. The Canadians also gained a great part of their objective.

The fighting today was on a more limited front than the battle of last Friday. The weather was fine.

BRITISH FRONT IN BELGIUM

OCT. 30.—At an early hour today the Canadians had taken a stand in the neighborhood of the famous crest farm, only 400 yards from the heat of the town of Passchendaele.

WITH THE FRENCH ARMIES IN FLANDERS, Oct. 30.—The most perfectly co-ordinated "team work" in the history of warfare brought France's veterans a victory in their battles last night.

So perfect was the co-ordination between aviators and French guns that throughout the day of his advance no German battery fired more than six shots before it was located by the French eagles of the air, accurately "ranged" the distance, wireless or signalled back and French guns put it out of commission.

ATTACK MADE ON BRIGHT, CRISP SUNDAY MORNING

This was on Sunday. The day dawned bright, crisp and clear—and was clear than at any time in two months. The French, who previously collected a remarkable number of planes and guns in this particular sector of Flanders. They got on the job at once. French squadrons took to the air.

They got the jump on the enemy, assuming the initiative and attaining complete mastery. Not only that, but they kept this mastery throughout the day. So many of these observation planes and so alert were their occupants that they spotted German guns on their first shots.

Their range estimates were deadly in accuracy. French batteries put German guns out of commission so often that at the close of the day it was estimated the French fire had been twenty-five times greater than that of the Germans.

Meanwhile, observation planes hovering over the German positions and protected by the other "lines" of French planes spied out all the enemy's secrets and communicated them back to French stations. There were so many of these observation planes and so alert were their occupants that they spotted German guns on their first shots.

Their range estimates were deadly in accuracy. French batteries put German guns out of commission so often that at the close of the day it was estimated the French fire had been twenty-five times greater than that of the Germans.

PARIS, Oct. 30.—The German gains over a 500-yard front around Courtrai yesterday were completely re-won today by the French, according to the official statement published this afternoon.

The statement also said that additional German attacks were repulsed. Active artillery fighting was reported on the Chaumont wood and Ypres front.

The death of one person and slight damage are the results of a German air raid over Nancy, according to an official report issued today.

CABINET CRISIS AT ROME IS FORGOTTEN

Italians Falling Back From the Former Lines to Prepared Base of Operations in Rear

BERLIN, via London, Oct. 30.—Udine, the former Italian headquarters, has been occupied by Austro-German forces, army headquarters announce today.

The retreat of the defeated Italian army to have hindered at the few crossings of the river, which is greatly swollen. The Austrians and Germans are pressing forward irrepressibly in the northern plain toward the course of the Tagliamento river, the statement says.

Austro-German troops advancing from the Carnic Alps have reached Venetian soil on the whole front and are pressing forward against the upper course of the Tagliamento.

REAR GUARD ACTION MARKS THEIR RETREAT

ROME, Oct. 30.—The Italian retreat continues, the war offices announce. The Italian cavalry is in contact with the vanguard of the advancing enemy.

The Italians destroyed bridges over the Isonzo and fought rear guard actions, by which means they checked the Austro-German advance.

All Italy is confident the military situation will clear in a satisfactory manner in the next two or three days. Complete confidence was expressed today in General Cadorna's plans for a stand which will halt the great German advance.

Austria has been forced to promise Trieste to Germany as the price for the Prussian aid in the drive, according to well authenticated Swiss reports received here.

"Our enemies are probably playing their last card," commented the newspaper Tribuna today. "A battle which is developing and which may occur on the Friuli plain may be decisive for the whole enterprise."

"Even if the enemy and the Julian wing are compelled to withdraw, this will have no final consequence," said the Popolo d'Italia.

"We are steadfast and ready to reject with scorn any attitude creating difficulties with the directing powers," said the Osservatore Romano.

ITALIAN DEBACLE ANNALS WAR PLANS

LONDON, Oct. 30.—Italy's invasion may change the whole war plan of the allies. The tremendous success gained by the Mackensen war machine is spurring the allies to the greatest efforts to help their ally, two of whose armies now seem to have been broken by the blows of the Teutonic forces.

General Cadorna is expected to make his stand on the Tagliamento line. Until that front is reached London does not expect any other than news of sweeping German successes. Today military experts were prepared to hear of the Italian evacuation of Udine. The main apprehension here was that if the Isonzo front has completely disintegrated, it will be exceedingly difficult matter to delay the German advance sufficiently to prepare the Tagliamento line for the tremendous blow it is expected this front must withstand. Before the "last stand" is reached, however, it is likely the effect of strong allied resistance may be felt.

DANGER TO LATINS WELL UNDERSTOOD

"Not one newspaper today minimized the danger of the Italian situation. All agreed the German victory means several months' continuation of the war."

Information from Italian, as well as Swiss, sources, put the number of Mackensen's invading troops at 500,000. Practically every one of these—certainly all the German troops—were drawn from the Russian front. So were most of the thousands of guns with which the Teutons literally blazed their way forward.

The German activity around Riga recently is now explained as a heavy "feint" to draw attention there and make the allies believe that a concentration of German forces for a land drive on Petrograd was in prospect.

MERRITT BACK WITH FOOD ENCOURAGEMENT
Bringing a message from the food administration at Washington on the eve of the great Hoover food pledge campaign in the state, Ralph P. Merritt, food administrator for California, is home to aid in directing the great conservation drive.
That California, as the state with the largest responsibility in the food saving campaign, is expected to lead all others in the food pledge signatures is Merritt's message. From the viewpoint of the Hoover administration, he declares, the food situation is one of the most important factors in the struggle of the nation.
Several days before he left for California Merritt attended a meeting of administrators and food experts under Hoover, where the message to California was prepared.
"California should lead the United States," says the message, "in registrations in support of the President and his plans for food conservation. No state has a larger responsibility for unanimous response than California. We know we will not be disappointed when the campaign closes on November 4. Signing the food pledge is the universal opportunity for every man and woman to do his or her share in winning the war."
FOOD PRICES TO BE PRINTED BIWEEKLY
By publication of all wholesale food prices, setting forth in detail the costs of all goods to the retailers, the California food administration will, after the Hoover food regulations go into effect November 1, embark on a campaign of education to eliminate overcharges in stores. The food prices will be published at least twice a month, under the plans of California Food Administrator Ralph Merritt, and these prices will serve as a guide to the public who can, by applying a figure of profit, ascertain at once a fair retail price for every commodity.
In connection with this, Food Administrator Merritt will request all small groceries to align themselves with the food administration by signing the Hoover food pledge and promising to fight overcharges.
"The food administration," says a statement from Merritt's office,

BOYLE TO UPHOLD AUDITORIUMS' USE
Holding issue with the report of the advisory committee to the city board of education which has recommended that the use of school auditoriums by outside organizations and for social purposes be discontinued, Director Harry L. Boyle today declared that he will oppose adoption of the measure "in the interests of democracy."
The committee has returned its report to the board after nearly a year's labor, and it will be formally acted upon next Thursday. Many radical changes have been suggested, among them the abolition of school cafeterias, shower baths and assembly rooms.
"Several years ago I enlisted in the fight to open the school auditoriums for the benefit of neighborhood clubs and improvement organizations as a means of promoting the interests of the different localities," said Boyle. "The taxpayers are entitled to some return for their investment in the expensive auditoriums of the schools, and I would like to have some one point out to me a more fitting use of the schools during evenings when they are otherwise not in service."
The committee has further suggested that two new school buildings be constructed each year to keep pace with the growth of the city. The valuation of the buildings is estimated at $5,958,502.97, while school realty is valued at $1,735,153.70.

WAR AIMS TABOO AT CONFERENCE
WASHINGTON, Oct. 30.—Andrew Bonar Law's declaration in the House of Commons that war aims will not be discussed at the coming conference and that only questions pertinent to the prosecution of the war will be taken up, agrees with the understanding of the United States. A definition and coordination of military effort is the chief object, made more than timely by results of the Austro-German drive into Italy.
One predominant question concerns food and supplies, whether for soldiers and civilians, and how to get them to the right place in the quickest possible time.
Effects of the war on the politics of the world are to have no place in the deliberations and the present political situation in any country will be considered only in the light of military necessity. Thus the internal conditions of Russia and Italy and the measure of men and food and munitions to be given these countries will be taken up as military problems.

COMMONS ASKED FOR BIG WAR CREDIT
LONDON, Oct. 30.—The House of Commons had before it at today's session the introduction by Andrew Bonar Law, chancellor of the exchequer, of the vote of credit for £400,000,000 and one of the chancellor's periodic statements regarding the finances of the war. The amount which the House is asked to vote is expected to be sufficient to last until the end of the year, when another vote will have to be brought forward. The vote today will bring the total loans for the year to £1,500,000,000, and the total since the commencement of the war to £5,692,000,000.
The debate through the various stages of the vote is expected to extend over four days and a variety of subjects will be discussed. On Thursday Sir Eric Campbell Geddes, first lord of the admiralty, will make his first announcement on naval policy.

"Cannot fix retail prices or govern in any way what the public shall pay, but the publication of the wholesale lists will serve as a guide for what not to pay. In the meantime the federal licensing law will guide the making of many wholesale prices."
Many Oakland canneries and packing firms are affected under the new licensing law, while the smaller groceries, reached through the food pledge, will, Merritt holds, be thus also directly under his supervision.

How long since you sat that way together?
Habit has built a wall of commonplaces. You sit on opposite sides of a table—and read newspapers or pore over bills.
But here . . . there is no table between you. No light to disclose harsh realities. You sit close, side by side, and maybe your hands touch. You are learning how to be lovers again, from fleeting lights and shadows that move across a screen!
And as that unconscious hard crust of life is melted by the kindly warmth of a finer, tender feeling, you glance at each other and see—no, not brows knit with the problems and plans of today and tomorrow—
But the shy young girl and strong, romantic youth of those other, bygone days and their never-forgotten sweetness!
You have found your old sweetheart again!
*****
And maybe you have not spoken—but you have felt—and understood. You have been silent—yes, but it was silent understanding. You have learned something, and you have found something fine and clean that was getting all dim and dusty and forgotten, way off in a corner behind Business and Household Cares. ## YOUR SICK CHILD IS CONSTIPATED! LOOK AT TONGUE

Hurry, Mother! Remove Poisons From Little Stomach, Liver, Bowels.

Give "California Syrup of Figs" if Cross, Bilious or Feverish.

No matter what ails your child, a gentle, thorough laxative should always be the first treatment given. If your little one is out-of-sorts, half-sick, isn't resting, eating and acting naturally—look! Mother! see if tongue is coated. This is a sure sign that its little stomach, liver and bowels are clogged with waste. When cross, irritable, feverish, stomach sour, breath bad or has stomach-ache, diarrhoea, sore throat, full of cold, give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs," and in a few hours all the constipated poison, undigested food and sour bile gently moves out of its little bowels without gripping, and you have a well, playful child again.

Mothers can rest easy after giving this harmless "fruit laxative," because it never fails to cleanse the little one's liver and bowels and sweeten the stomach and they dearly love its pleasant taste. Full directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups printed on each bottle.

Beware of counterfeit fig syrups. Ask your druggist for a bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," then see that it is made by the "California Fig Syrup Company."—Advertisement.

WOMEN! MOTHERS! DAUGHTERS!

You who tire easily, are pale, haggard, a worn, nervous or irritable, who are subject to fits of melancholy or the "blues," get your blood examined for iron deficiency.

Since the discovery that mercurized wax possesses remarkable absorbent powers when applied to the skin, the demand for it as a complexion restorer has been tremendous. Druggists in every section report sales far exceeding those of anything similar they have ever had on their shelves.

Ordinary mercurized wax gently peels off the dehydrated cuticle, in minute particles so that the user loses no skin. Her old worn-out complexion, the more youthful under-skin taking its place. Catarrhs, eruptions, blotches, moth patches, liver spots and freckles are of course removed at the same time. As the wax is entirely harmless, and easy to use women all over the country are purchasing it in original packages and using it to quickly rejuvenate their complexions. The wax is applied the same as cold cream, allowed to remain on overnight then washed off with warm water.—Advertisement.

TO RELIEVE CATARRHAL DEAFNESS AND HEAD NOISES.

If you have Catarrhal Deafness or head noises go to your druggist and get 1 ounce of Parmit (double strength), and add to it 2 pint of hot water and 4 ounces of granulated sugar. Take 1 tablespoonful four times a day.

This will often bring quick relief from the distressing head noises. Clogged nostrils should open, breathing become easy and the mucous stop dropping into the throat. It is easy to prepare, costs little and is pleasant to take. Women with Catarrhal Deafness or head noises should give this prescription a trial. Osgood Bros.—Advertisement.

MRS. A. E. CARTER

Factions Agree on Official Ticket and Mrs. A. E. Carter of Oak- land Chosen President.

The dove of peace descended upon the annual meeting of the Women's Legislative Council of California which was held yesterday in the Phelan building, San Francisco. The anticipated disagreement between the north and south and about which rumor has buzzed itself for several weeks, was eliminated, the factions agreeing at last upon the official ticket offered by the nominating committee, of which Miss Gail Laughlin was chairman.

Mrs. A. E. Carter of this city has been chosen leader of the magnificent body of 75,000 organized women who are represented in the council.

CLOUDS DISPELLED. When the names of the candidates were presented by Miss Laughlin, Dr. Jessie A. Russell, representing the southern women, proved the gallantry of her delegates by bespeaking a unanimous election with the secretary to cast the ball.

Immediately the threatened storm clouds were dissipated and the business of the day proceeded. The most humorous incident was the presentation of the report of the credential committee, first before adjournment instead of before the casting of ballots for officers and amendments. Seventy-eight women were entitled to the privilege.

The legislative council proved that it preferred its own constitution and by-laws rather than the three changes which were offered to the convention, voting the proposed amendments down without a dissenting vote.

WORK IN LEGISLATURE.

The report of Mrs. Herbert A. Cable, returning president of the council, covering two busy sessions of the legislature when the bills sponsored by the organization came to a successful issue, was indicative of the active affairs of the state.

Mrs. Carter, the newly-elected president, will return from the north next month to take up the preliminary work of her office. She was formerly president of Oakland, California, Civic League, chairman of the Alameda County Woman's Committee, Councils of National and State Defense, and of the Oakland unit. Those who will serve with Mrs. Carter on the board of directors are: Vice-president, Mrs. Foster T. Griffiths, Hollywood; Mrs. W. H. Shockley, Palo Alto; recording secretary, Mrs. Anna Harden de Yo, San Francisco; corresponding secretary, Mrs. H. N. Herrick, Berkeley; treasurer, Mrs. A. J. Lawton, Santa Ana; auditor, Mrs. Clara Bryant Hayward, Pasadena.

NOLAN TO SPEAK

Ed Nolan, one of the five bomb case defendants, will speak tonight at Chabot Hall, Eleventh and Grove streets. He will give the historical development of the case, discuss the Preparedness Day tragedy, "as but an incident in the real motive behind the prosecution of himself and associates," give his reason for the "trial" of Weinberg and his opinion of what is hoped for by the district attorney when he puts Nolan on trial. The meeting tonight is free.

SEEK MISSING BOY

Robert Hall, 14 years of age, left his home at 1477 Benton street, Santa Clara, seven weeks ago and his mother or today wrote to Chief of Police Henry Nedderman asking the assistance of the police in locating him. He is believed to have come to the bay cities. Robert is freckle-faced and has his dark brown hair in the middle. He has a distinct "cow-lick" and brown eyes. When he left home he wore a green coat and corduroy trousers and had on black overalls.

CLYMER TO SPEAK

John L. Clymer, chairman of the western division of the Red Cross, will speak tonight at the annual meeting of the Oakland Chapter of the organization. Clymer will tell what demands will be made on the local chapter for the future and will give a resume of what has been done by the national organization in the war zone.

There will be an election of officers and reports of the year's work will be read. The meeting will be held in the headquarters, 1560 Broadway.

GIVEN PAROLES

SAN QUENTIN, Oct. 30.—The state board of prison directors granted immediate paroles to thirteen prisoners at its meeting here. Two of the thirteen were women serving two years each for forgery. One was sentenced from Alameda county and the other from San Joaquin county. They were the only women on the parole calendar. The board heard fifty-six applications. Future date and conditional paroles were given eighteen; twelve cases were postponed and eighteen were denied parole. No life-termers were heard.

TREASURY RECORD

WASHINGTON, Oct. 30.—Subscriptions reported today to the treasury's offering of certificates of indebtedness ran the grand total for the issue so far up to $429,976,000 and made a new record.

The Regular End-of-the-Month Half-Off Sale

An occasion of unusual importance, this time, because of the fact that many of the items included are suitable for Christmas gifts.

This end-of-the-month clearance includes not only the month's accumulation of broken lines, remnant lengths and odds and ends, but many special purchases, which were secured at price concessions permitting their sale at just half the prices regularly obtained for merchandise of like quality.

Whatever may remain unsold at the end of the day (an insignificant amount, if any, as a rule), goes back in stock at just double the price asked in the Half-Off Sale.

Silks at Half

—Several hundred yards of fancy crepes, fancy taffetas, fancy pongee and Shantung weaves heretofore sold at $2.50 to $4.50 a yard, will be $1.25 to $2.25 a yard on Wednesday.

—Splendid selection of silk remnants at half. Main Floor.

Fancy Linens at Half

—Madeira hand embroidered scarfs in sizes 18x36 to 18x72 at half regular prices. Some of the smaller ones were priced as low as $3. The best of the large ones were $14.50. So the sale prices will range from $1.50 to $7.25.

—Madeira hand embroidered ovals, regularly $2 to $5.50, at half. Third Floor.

SNOW IN CHICAGO

CHICAGO, Oct. 30.—It looked like a midwinter night in this city. A snowstorm, which started early in the afternoon, continued, and by midnight several inches had fallen and remained on the ground. The thermometer dropped below freezing and a sharp wind combined with the snow to make the streets as disagreeable as during a February storm.

NAVY OFFICER BURIED.

VALLEJO, Oct. 30.—Funeral services for the late Lieutenant S. H. Lawton, U. S. N., who committed suicide at Mare Island Naval Hospital Saturday night, were held this afternoon at the navy yard chapel.

LAST FILM IS BEST

The third, last and greatest of the episodes of the British government's motion pictures, showing "The Retreat of the Germans at the Battle of Arras" is being shown at the Orpheum this week. Thrilling as they were, the first two installments merely led up to the great offensive and in this last installment, the pictures show the bombardment at its greatest height, the capture of Arras, and many other smaller towns and villages. The most interesting development of war, the "tank," is seen firing and under fire. Soldiers are pictured going "over the top" under heavy shell fire. Then come the prisoners, thousands of them. Each returning British regiment has captured the Huns by drives.

OAKLAND SOLDIERS ARE GOOD ATHLETES

Special to The TRIBUNE.

CAMP KEARNY, Linda Vista, Oct. 29.—Oakland soldiers are among the stars of the army athletes here, several former Oakland High School and Olympic Club men having jumped into fame by their prowess. These are the members of Battery B, the coach Olympic Club battery of the Grizzlies, and among the Oaklanders are Ralph Hogan, formerly of the Hauschildt Music Company, an Olympic Club hurdler and graduate of Oakland High School with the 1911 class. He is now in training for the Division Field meet to be held at the San Diego stadium.

C. M. Moran, former manager for the Hauschildt Music Company, is mess cook for the battery and has an $800 mess fund to work with. He was an Olympic Club boxer. Mess Sergeant Hearn, captain of the battery baseball team, which holds the regimental championship, is a former Boston National Robert Cuppes, Oakland High School graduate, and an acting sergeant, is among the players. Al Montague was a star of the football team until transferred to the aviation section. There are several University of California players in the battery, including George Montgomery, famous full back, Lockhart, Johnny Fahy and Frank Shaw are among the towers of strength in the team.

The team plays the old American game, and most of the members are jumping out for the big fourth division team.

BAND IS HONORED.

The Oakland Headquarters Band of the One Hundred and Fifty-ninth Infantry has been honored by General Cameron, the commanding officer. After reviewing every band in Camp Kearny, giving them the "once over," at Sergeant Lake put it he picked out the best band in camp. One hundred and fifty-ninth to furnish the music in front of his tent every Thursday night for the entertainment of himself and the members of his staff.

HAS SHOE RECORD

Supply Sergeant Nelson claims the world's record in fitting shoes. Here it is: One hundred and ninety-three pairs of shoes fitted for ten men. Liberty boys in forty-eight minutes. The Liberty boys will soon have to send all of their civilian clothes home, as they are in the way and a soldier has plenty of equipment to pack which is absolutely necessary without adding to the burden.

CAMP LEWIS, TACOMA, Oct. 30.

Visits of the national army soldiers to Seattle are still banned by order of Major General H. A. Greene until such time as the authorities of that city investigate his charges that a vice ring is in operation in which there were implicated some men "higher up" a number of gamblers, bootleggers and 2500 women.

In the city council today Councilman R. H. Thompson is expected to introduce a resolution asking General Greene to meet the men alleged to be behind the vice ring. It is certain that some action will be taken by the council today, either for a police investigation or an inquiry by the councilmen themselves.

Oakland liberty boys who may have to spend a few days in the base hospital for minor indispositions will now find their quarters warm and comfortable. Heat has been turned on in the base hospital just 65 days after the first of new buildings in the hospital unit was started. This is said to be the fastest building record in the United States.

Lieutenant Harold W. Childs of Los Angeles, special instructor in trench work, was married yesterday in Tacoma to Miss Elizabeth McNaughton of Chicago, daughter of John McNaughton, traffic manager for Swift & Co. They first met two years ago in Los Angeles where he was employed by the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Company. Lieutenant Childs is the son of a distinguished New York jurist.

A genuine rodeo, with all the trimmings, is to be the entertainment feature for the cantonment on November 11. The cantonment of Northern California and Nevada boys are preparing to team up in the bucking contests and some exciting moments are promised.

CAMP FREMONT, Oct. 30.—Colonel W. H. Hay, commanding the Fifteenth Cavalry Regiment, and Colonel A. H. Bush, of the Thirteenth Regiment, have been notified of their transfer to Camp Fremont. Colonel Hay will report to Camp Watkins, New York, where he will assume command of a brigade, and Colonel Bush will be placed at the head of a regiment of the National Army.

Both men are well known and popular in army circles. Colonel Hay was a classmate of General Pershing's at West Point and has since served as chief of staff for General Bliss and Major-General Frederick Funston. He is a veteran of the Spanish-American war and has seen service in the Philippines, Cuba and along the border. The departure of these two officers leaves Camp Fremont with but one colonel, the camp commander, Colonel Samuel Smiley. It is understood that he will be elevated to the rank of brigadier-general within a short period of time. Colonel Hay is also mentioned for a like promotion.

FLEECE RICH MEN

CHICAGO, Oct. 30.—Further operations of confidence men who several days ago swindled Charles H. Worken, president of a bank in Fort Wayne, Ind., out of $15,000, were revealed today when the Chicago police began search for the men who recently bilked a bank official in Fort near Bloomington, Ill., out of $80,000, and J. B. Tierney of Ansley, Neb., out of $40,000. The Bloomington banker, whose name is withheld, is said to have been swindled in a sale of fake stock. Tierney met the "big business men" in Excelsior Springs, Mo., and was "let in" on several deals through which he lost $40,000.

REFUSES MONEY

FORT SHERIDAN, Ill., Oct. 30.—A student officer in the Third Regiment here, a tank man, is withheld has refused a legacy of $20,000, the acceptance of which would necessitate leaving the training camp here, it became known today. Two weeks ago he received word his uncle in Colorado had died and left him a business property valued at $20,000, with the proviso that he should continue the business. The young man was undecided until word came that American troops were in the trenches in France. He telegraphed his refusal of the money and continued his work for a commission.

MAYO MEN'S BALL

Committees of the Mayo Men's Association met in Hibernia hall yesterday to complete the details of the annual ball and reunion to be held next Saturday night in Majestic hall. The reports indicated that the ball would prove successful. Before the grand march, which will be led by Public Administrator William J.

Hynes and Mrs. Hynes, a program of Gaelic entertainment will be presented. The committee in charge is headed by Martin F. Gallagher, and includes F. E. Bolton, John Brannick, Michael J. Lally, T. J. Quinn, Eneas

Kane, Patrick J. Roddy, Thomas J. Jordan, Andrew J. Gallagher, John O. Walsh, John D. Hynes, Vincent Brannick, John M. Honagan, Peter Regan, E. J. Healy, J. J. Johnston, P. J. Rush, A. Holan, J. J. Cannon.

WOMEN SIGNERS CAUGHT BY MOVIES

Ralph Merritt, food administrator for California; Dr. Benjamin Ide Wheeler, president of the University of California; Mayor Samuel G. Irving of Berkeley, members of the city council; club leaders, including Mrs. Frederick Robson, chairman of the Mobilized Women's Organizations of Berkeley; Mrs. Aaron Schloss, vice-president at large, California Federation of Women's Clubs; Mrs. E. W. Marston, president Berkeley Federation of Mothers' Clubs; Mrs. Frederick Athearn, president of the Twentieth Century Club, and scores of others who went to the city hall, to sign the food pledge this morning were caught by the movies as they signed it.

This film, which is the second in the series of "conservation films" which has been prepared by the Mobilized Women's Organizations of the college town, will be incorporated as a part of the real showing the collection of the 18,000 books and ten tons of magazines taken a fortnight ago, and the transformation of the men's reading rooms at Yerba Buena for the furnishings of which the papers were sold.

The completed films will be shown on Thursday afternoon and evening in the T. & D. Theater of Berkeley for the benefit of the Mobilized Women's Organizations of the college town.

"A unit of American homes arrayed against the enemy in the campaign for food conservation," the governor said in urging the people throughout the State to co-operate in the campaign this week to secure signatures to the pledge to conserve the Federal food administration and to comply with its requests.

The Governor's proclamation addressed to the people of the State follows:

"I urge by my sense of patriotic duty to support every effort toward the nation's victory in the struggle now being waged on land and sea, I appeal to the women and the men of California to at once sign the food pledge of the Federal food administration."

"These pledges will be presented at every door; they will appear in the newspapers; they will be spoken of in the churches, theaters and moving picture houses. Every agency, Federal, State, county, municipal, public and private, will be used to bring these pledges to your notice. Every woman and every man in California should sign."

"The pledge is a simple one. It merely states that the signer is glad to join the Federal administration in the service of food conservation of our nation; and

"That the signer accepts membership in the United States food administration, pledging herself or himself to carry out the directions and advice of the food administration as homes of circumstances permit."

"I appeal to you as Americans, as Californians, as lovers of your nation and of humanity to sign the food pledge. A unit of American homes arrayed against the enemy will mean certain success."

FOOD SAVING PLEA IS HEARD

BRIDGEPORT, Conn., Oct. 30.—Connecticut's part in the nation-wide food conservation campaign was begun here, when former President William H. Taft made the keynote address to a large audience after having signed the Hoover pledge card was freely signed. In his address, Taft said:

"Conservation of food by a reduction in its consumption and avoidance of waste, Congress has not yet made compulsory. It is the individual Congress has not entrusted any official of the government to limit what you and I eat, but in the exigency of war this may become necessary. It has become necessary in Germany, in France and in England and in other countries."

"Our government trusts to the patriotic voluntary action of the people in securing the necessary economy in the consumption of food."

"Starvation and privation may break the will of our allies, may lead them to seek a patched-up peace, under which the Kaiser and the Prussian military regime may retain their evil power to bring the world again into such a war as this. Anarchy and extreme Socialism and German bribery are all working with the people of our allies to give up war and declare for a peace pact, as Germany would wish to make. If we have them with food that will make life endurable can keep them in their normal state of mind, they will stay with us to the end of this struggle for world liberty in this defeat of ruthless militarism."

"Mr. Hoover has properly said that food will win the war. We have the food. We can furnish it if we will restrain within most reasonable limits of our consumption of it."

GARBAGE IS LESS

SACRAMENTO, Oct. 30.—That the campaign, conducted by both National and State governments for food conservation and the prevention of waste has proven productive of great food savings, is the report made to the State Council of Defense by more than a dozen of the larger cities of California.

Long Beach leads the entire state in the food saving movement, as reflected in the decreased daily garbage supply. The Southern California city has cut down its daily and monthly garbage output 80 per cent, according to the report just made to the State Council. Riverside ranks second, with a 50 per cent decrease and San Francisco is third, with 25 per cent. Other cities which have cut down their garbage as a result of local campaigns for food saving, report their decreases as follows: Santa Monica and Alameda, 25 per cent; San Jose and Pasadena, 12 1/2 per cent; Berkeley, 10 1/2 per cent; and Oakland, 8 per cent.

Los Angeles and San Diego are the only two cities in the state to report increase in garbage supply. In Los Angeles the increase is fixed at 2 1/2 per cent and in San Diego at 6 1/2 per cent.

Women of County Mature Many Plans to Carry Hoover Scheme Here

Alameda county women have determined that they will set a record of which they need not be ashamed when the total number of food pledges are totaled on Saturday night. With 60,000 signatures to obtain, the women's committee, Councils of National and State Defense, in both county and the various local units are bending every effort to the big drive. It is being very carefully explained that the pledge is not designed to bring discomfort or even sacrifice to any individual, but that home economies are merely asked for an intelligent substitution for those things which are demanded by the army and for a careful elimination of unnecessary waste.

Every public library in the county has placed an exhibition table where the literature of the food administration may be found; where an attendant offers explanations of the purpose of the food drive, and where food pledges are offered for signatures. The Oakland Library, under the direction of Mrs. Frederick Wirtz Potter, has an interesting collection.

WORK IN THE SCHOOLS.

The girls in the senior class of the Fremont high school have organized a corps of workers who will cover the neighborhood of the school with information and blanks. Yesterday the students were gathered in the auditorium to listen to Mrs. Frederick C. Turner, chairman of the Alameda county woman's committee, Councils of National and State Defense, in a food conservation address. Today students in the Technical high school, the University high school and Oakland high school are assembling in mass to listen to similar talks.

The Board of Education has set aside a half hour in the grammar schools today when classroom teachers will outline the campaign, placing in the hand of each child an open letter addressed to its parents. In all the private schools of the city speakers are being heard today. Tomorrow Mills College and Miss Head's School for Girls in Berkeley are planning food rallies.

By the end of the week every Mothers' Club in Oakland will have had presented to it by special speakers the appeal of the Hoover administration. The Durant School Mothers' Club claims a record in its entire membership having become a pledge club.

FIREMEN ACCUSED

CHICAGO, Oct. 30.—Eight city firemen, alleged to be involved in a series of safe robberies, are under arrest today on orders from State's Attorney Hoynes. It is said that the plan was for the firemen, whose uniforms gave them easy access, to get needed advance information on pretense of looking for violations of fire prevention ordinances and then to blow the safes themselves or communicate the information to professionals.

WACHER IS HELD

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 30.—Carl J. F. ### "Who Will Win This Battle?"

Your kidneys are the filters of the body. If they become inactive and fail to eliminate the waste matter, they are apt to throw the whole mechanism of the body out of order, thus toxic poisons can accumulate in the system and be as deadly as snake venom.

Besides causing the minor ailments of rheumatism, sciatica, lumbago and backache, neglect of the kidneys is apt to develop into more serious diseases, such as diabetes or stone in the bladder.

Did the body of toxic poisons—clean the bladder and kidneys and cure the twinges of rheumatism with Anuric and you win the battle of life.

Anuric was first discovered by Dr. Pierce, and has benefited thousands of sufferers as well as appeased and eliminated the ravages of the more serious kidney diseases. Now procurable at any good drug store, or send direct to Dr. V. M. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y., 10 cents for trial package.

MRS. B. G. COKER says: "When I commenced the treatment of Anuric I was in the last stages of kidney trouble. My back ached all the time and oh! how my back would ache at night until I would have to get up. I could never sleep all night. But since I have taken the Anuric Tablets my backache is all gone and I can lie down and sleep good and sound all night. Oh! how much better I do feel—no one knows but myself. My advice to all sufferers of kidney troubles is to give Anuric a trial and see how it feels from their trouble."

Clear, Peachy Skin Awaits Anyone Who Drinks Hot Water

Says an inside bath, before breakfast, fast helps us look and feel clean, sweet, fresh.

Sparkling and vivacious—merry, bright, alert—a good, clear skin and a natural, rosy, healthy complexion are assured only by pure blood. If only every man and woman could be induced to adopt the morning inside bath, what a gratifying change would take place. Instead of the thousands of sickly, anaemic-looking men, women and girls, with pasty or muddy complexions; instead of the multitudes of "nervous wrecks," "rundowns," "brain fags" and pessimists we should see a virile, optimistic throng of rosy-cheeked people everywhere.

An inside bath is had by drinking each morning, before breakfast, a glass of real hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it to wash from the stomach, liver, kidneys and ten yards of bowels the previous day's indigestible waste, sour fermentations and poisons, thus cleansing, sweetening and freshening the entire alimentary canal before putting more food into the stomach. Those subject to sick headache, biliousness, nervous indigestion, colds; and particularly those who have a pallid, sallow complexion and who are constipated very often, are urged to obtain a quarter-pound of limestone phosphate at the drug store, which will cost but a trifle, but is sufficient to demonstrate the quick and remarkable change in both health and appearance, awaiting those who practice internal sanitation. We must remember that inside cleanliness is more important than outside, because the skin does not absorb impurities to contaminate the blood while the pores in the thirty feet of bowels do—advertisement.

KISSELKAR WINS TRIBUNE TROPHY

By Edmund Crinnion

Reaching the highest point ever attained by any stock automobile in high gear on the Mt. Diablo climb, a Kisselkar double six reached the pine tree on the summit yesterday and thereby won, by a margin of 74 feet, the high gear championship and the coveted TRIBUNE Mt. Diablo trophy.

The Kisselkar, which was driven by Ben Hammond of the Pacific Kisselkar branch house in Oakland, is the fifth powerful car to succeed in winning this trophy, which was offered early last spring by The TRIBUNE in order to insure all high gear tests on this mountain being held under the same rules and regulations and the cup is a challenge trophy and can only be held by the high gear champion until such time as another car beats the performance.

The first car to win this cup was a King 8, the second a Stearns Knight eight-cylinder; the third a Haynes 12; the fourth a Cole 8 and now the fifth a Kissel 12.

The winning of the cup by the Kisselkar by such a clear margin over the previous cup holders will come as a distinct surprise to those who are familiar with the conditions governing this test on Mt. Diablo and who have felt quite certain that the Cole 8 mark established last week was just about the highest point that any stock car could reach with the high gear in mesh carrying a passenger load of 700 pounds and complying in every way with the rules of the contest.

In the Kisselkar double six on the climb were, besides Hammond, who drove and the writer who acted as observer, W. G. Campbell of the Kisselkar branch and T. D. Walker of the Mt. Diablo estate and Ed Rogers of The TRIBUNE.

The Kisselkar, a car of the same make as to give the car its chance at the last steep pitch with only the required passenger weight. With the driver and observer and two extra passengers the passenger weight ran to 720 pounds exactly—15 pounds more than the rules demand.

Upon the return of the victorious Kissel to Oakland last night a committee of three automobile experts examined the car and certified to its being a stock car with the regular 2 to 1 stock gear ratio. The committee comprised the following automobile dealers: Charles Burman of the Oldsmobile; L. A. MacLean and R. T. Wilford of the Cole car, and George Goben of the Franklin car.

The committee then awarded the cup to Ben Hammond with congratulations on his record performance. The Mt. Diablo climb is about 12 miles of the hardest kind of going for high gear work. It represents a climb of 557 feet from sea level. The possession of the cup means the championship of the mountain and at any time that any stock car, irrespective of its make, price or number of cylinders can better the Kisselkar mark, it only by an inch, it wins the possession of the cup and the honors that the possession of the cup gives.

MAXWELL STARTS

Do you want a fifty dollar Liberty bond? If so, all you have to do is to record a correct guess as the outcome of the 50-gallon gasoline test started today by the Maxwell car.

The Western Motors Company, which has been incorporated for $200,000, has terminated to acquaint the public about the economy of operation of the new Maxwell models. To do this it has been arranged that a public demonstration of the new Maxwell models such as the new one in the test run all the way from 24 to 27 miles to the gallon on an average in the hands of private owners.

BELLE TO BE BRIDE

Society has just been apprised of the wedding date of Miss Blise Posey and Robert McMurray Hunt of San Francisco, which is set for Thursday evening, at the home of the bride-elect's mother, Mrs. A. ## Stanford Lad Tells of Victory Says "Joe Boche" Is Good Sport

STANFORD UNIVERSITY, Oct. 30.—That the Stanford ambulance units in France are taking an ever increasing part in the war is indicated in a letter just received here from Frank Taylor, "118" The Stanford men have recently had good many opportunities to view the fighting, and Taylor compares it to a football game, only on a bigger scale. "You can see the whole works," writes Taylor, "just as you follow the plays of a big game, only this is on a much bigger scale, a bigger league sport."

Taylor writes as follows: "This is the real sport, fighting back at Joe Boche, as the enemy is unpopularity known among our gang. We've been at it three days after due preparation, and Joe Boche has retired from trench to trench all along the sector. Such a gain in the western front would be an amazing victory, but down here it is just good sport."

Taking war as war comes, this is the best place in the world to see movements and follow successes after battles. It is a kind of old-style warfare, where men go out and take positions without the butchery of trench and machine gun. You can follow the whole works, just as you follow the plays in a big football game, only this is on a much larger scale, is a bigger league sport.

"We might as well get through the last three days together. Friday night was the time set for the fireworks to begin, we heard in a roundabout way, and Carl Randau and I went out with Harry Frantz, 'Spot' Peck and Duncan McLeish to establish a post near one of the batteries. Our hunch proved to be the correct one, for just as we arrived at P—the French batteries there began thundering away at Joe Boche in the hills across the way.

"POSITIONS TAKEN EASILY. "That night we did not hear much, but next morning we learned that the enemy's positions were taken so easily that it was not necessary to waste shells.

"The next morning proved to be our 'star' day. Early in the morning five of us were honored with a shell apiece from a big gun of Joe Boche. We appreciate that honor now, though none of us stayed to see the ceremony planned for us, entirely through. We retreated unconditionally in squads of one. The

S. P. STRIKE VOTE MADE TONIGHT

A strike vote of employees of the Oakland ships of the Southern Pacific, affecting machinists, handymen, car-cleaners and other employees of the local repair shops, will be taken tonight at a meeting in the Oakland labor temple, unless unforeseen action before 8 o'clock tonight halts proceedings.

Similar meetings will be held in Sacramento and Los Angeles. W. E. Castro, organizer of the new shipmen's union, and J. J. Sweeney, chairman of the organization, now being at the state capital directing operations there, while an executive committee will have charge of tonight's session.

If the strike is called, as scheduled, it will mean the walkout, according to the union men, of nearly 3000 employees at once, and probably 10,000 men at Phoenix and Los Angeles ship works act. The one possible halt for the strike, say the local union men, would be word from Washington, where the matter is now in the hands of the Department of Labor, that mediation can be assured at once. The workers demand recognition of the new union and a 20 per cent wage increase.

The walkout, if it is called, will affect not only men, but women car-cleaners, who replaced men shortly after war was declared.

story of five fools runs as follows: "Carl Randau, Bill Loeh, 'Dusty' Honens, Harold Sayre and I went out in the staff car to inspect the post. We stopped at the farther outpost and went up on a hill to see the fight. It was a wonderful vantage point we chose, for from a fairly safe trench we could see the guns of both sides fire, and we could see the shells light and explode after sizzling through the air from one hill to the other. The French batteries were back of us and slightly to either side, so that the shells went over our heads. The armies were firing at each others' batteries.

"Finally tiring of that view, we went to another post, and from there to a hill directly in front of one of the French batteries, though we did not know we were doing so at the time. We crawled through the bushes and up to a hill, from which we had a view almost too wonderful to be true. We could see every position Joe Boche held perfectly and could also see the French shells lighting on his points and slowly battering his trenches and positions down.

"Suddenly, while we lay there in the bushes, a shell whirled over our heads and exploded, a considerable distance behind us. Then another, and another, each time sounding nearer. We began to have apprehensions, and when the fourth burst over our heads and slightly to one side of us, we hastily evacuated our positions in companies of one. The fifth shot convinced us that Joe Boche had seen us and was honoring us with shrapnel, thinking we might be officers taking observations.

"In one of the front trenches we found a dead Austrian. He was a young man, with clean-cut features; and had evidently been left in such a hurry his comrades could not bury him.

"That evening we advanced along with the victorious French even ahead of our post. Will Rogers of San Francisco was the first to go out of our advanced post, and with the lieutenant and Carl Randau he passed ahead of the artillery and infantry, leaving only a small cavalry troop between him and the evacuating Boche. According to Carl, it was one of the proudest moments of his life when he saw an American ambulance passing everything en route to the poste near the front."

AUTOISTS HELD

SAN MATEO, Oct. 30.—The San Mateo county traffic squad made another big raid on automobile violators and thirty-four drivers were arrested and told to appear before Justice of the Peace Porter E. Lamb at Burlingame on Thursday to answer to charges of breaking the new state law governing headlights, 250 Front street; Ben Blass, 3313 Clay street; C. McGuire, 313 Duncan street; W. ## ARE "COPETTES"

HOBOKEN, N. J., Oct. 30.—Six society women were sworn in as police officers after volunteering to serve without pay, for the purpose of keeping young girls off the streets at night in companionship with soldiers and sailors. Conditions in this respect were declared by investigators to be serious. Girls will be escorted into the presence of their parents.

Overworked Women must learn not to neglect their health

How Women are Restored to Health

Spartanburg, S. C.—"For nine years I suffered from backache, weakness, and irregularities so I could hardly do my work. I tried many remedies but found no permanent relief. After taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound I felt a great change for the better and am now well and strong as I have no trouble in doing my work. I hope every user of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will get a great relief as I did from its use."—Mrs. S. D. McABER, 122 Dewey Ave., Spartanburg, S. C.

Chicago, Ill.—"For about two years I suffered from a female trouble so I was unable to walk or do any of my own work. I read about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound in the newspapers and determined to try it. It brought almost immediate relief. My weakness has entirely disappeared and I never had better health. I weigh 155 pounds and am as strong as a man. I think money is well spent which purchases Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound."—Mrs. Jos. O'BRYEN, 1755 Newport Ave., Chicago, Ill.

THE FOUR "BEST SELLERS" In Quality Musical Instruments

While we sell each month hundreds of medium-priced pianos and player-pianos, Kohler & Chase is the headquarters for the very newest and finest instruments manufactured. The following quality instruments are the big hits in the new 1918 models now on sale. Inspect them before you make your final selection.

THE KNABE SOLOELLE

(The New Solo Player-Piano)

Is the most beautiful of the Soloelle Players.

The Soloelle is the most wonderful epoch-making invention since the beginning of the player-piano industry.

The Soloelle is the one artistic pedal-player piano.

The Soloelle does two things that, while new in the player-piano, are vital to the production of real music.

First—Is the only player piano that provides satisfactory and distinct individual controls of Melody and Accompaniment operated separately.

Second—Is the only player piano that provides a satisfactory control of the Tone Colorings.

Hear the Soloelle before you decide on any player-piano—it is entirely different.

In addition to the Knabe Soloelle we are showing the Soloelle in the new models of the following leading makes:

Kohler & Chase, Gabel, Shoeninger, Andrew Kohler, Fischer

Priced at $575 to $1075

THE KNABE AMPICO

represents the highest development of the reproducing piano—The Knabe Ampico is the original of the art reproducing pianos in America.

A comparison with any other reproducing piano will instantly convince you of the vast superiority of the wonderful Knabe Ampico.

Price $1275

We invite you to hear the Knabe Ampico's living reproduction of the music played by Leopold Godowsky, Eugen d'Albert, Harold Bauer, Leo Ornstein, Josef Hofmann, Wilhelm Bachaus, Ossip Gabrilowitsch, Mark Hambourg, Pietro Mascagni, Katherine Goodson—These, the greatest artists of the world, play exclusively for the Ampico, because it is the dominating leader in its field.

Liberty Bonds Are as Good as Cash at Kohler & Chase

On all the above we extend terms if desired, and will make a liberal allowance for other instruments in exchange. Visitors are welcome to inspect the new 1918 Models in service. You will not be asked to purchase.

If it is impossible for you to visit our show rooms, fill in and mail coupon and full information will be sent you.

THE KNABE MIGNONETTE GRAND

The smallest of the family of Knabe Grands—possesses the nobility of tonal character, the superb action and the beauty of design, which distinguish the Knabe Grand above all others.

Leopold Godowsky, the world's greatest pianist, has repeatedly said that the Knabe Mignonette is the only little Grand comparable with the full sized Grand.

The Mignonette takes up a little more space than an upright.

Price $825

Other Grand Pianos from $495 up to $1750.

THE KNABE GRAND AMPICO

the wonderful piano—like the upright Knabe Ampico, brings into your home to play for you the world's greatest artists. And they play for you with all their individuality—their fire—their sparkle and brilliancy—their pathos—enhanced by the tonal beauty of the true Knabe Grand Piano—their chosen and preferred instrument.

Price $2100

We invite you to hear the Knabe Ampico's living reproduction of the music played by Leopold Godowsky, Eugen d'Albert, Harold Bauer, Leo Ornstein, Josef Hofmann, Wilhelm Bachaus, Ossip Gabrilowitsch, Mark Hambourg, Pietro Mascagni, Katherine Goodson—These, the greatest artists of the world, play exclusively for the Ampico, because it is the dominating leader in its field.

FOOD SOURING IN STOMACH CAUSES INDIGESTION, GAS

"Pape's Diapepsin" Relieves Stomach Distress in Five Minutes.

Wonder what upset your stomach— which portion of the food did the damage—do you? Well, don't bother. If your stomach is in a revolt; if sick, gassy and upset, and what you just ate has fermented and turned your head dizzy and aches; belch gases and acids and eructate undigested food; breath foul, tongue coated—just take a little Pape's Diapepsin to help neutralize acidity and in five minutes you wonder what became of the indigestion and distress.

Millions of men and women today know that it is needless to have dyspepsia. A little Diapepsin occasionally keeps the stomach sweetened and they eat their favorite foods without fear.

If your stomach doesn't take care of your food limit without rebellion; if your food is a damage instead of a help, remember the quickest, surest, most harmless relief is Pape's Diapepsin, which costs only fifty cents for a large case of 100 tablets. It's truly wonderful—it stops fermentation and acidity and sets things straight, so gently and easily that it is really astonishing.—Advertisement.

Try Making Your Own Cough Remedy

You can save about $2. and have a better remedy than the ready-made kind. Easily done.

If you combined the curative properties of every known cough remedy, you would hardly have in them all the curative power that lies in this simple "home-made" cough syrup which takes only a few minutes to prepare.

Get from any drug store a bottle of Pinex (50 cents worth), pour it into a pint bottle and fill the bottle with plain granulated sugar syrup. The total cost is about 65 cents and gives you a full pint of really better cough syrup than you could buy ready-made for $2.50. Makes pleasant and never spoils.

This Pinex and sugar syrup preparation gets right at the cause of a cough and gives almost immediate relief. It loosens the phlegm, stops the nasty throat tickle and heals the sore, irritated membranes that line the throat, chest and bronchial tubes, so gently and easily that it is really astonishing.

A day's use will usually overcome the ordinary cough and for bronchitis, croup, whooping cough and bronchial asthma, there is nothing better.

Pinex is a most valuable concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine extract, and has been used for generations to break up severe coughs.

To avoid disappointment, be sure to ask your druggist for "2 1/2 ounces of Pinex" with full directions, and don't accept a small size.

For absolute satisfaction or money promptly refunded, goes with this preparation. The Pinex Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.

A CLEAR COMPLEXION

Ruddy Cheeks—Sparkling Eyes—
Most Women Can Have

Says Dr. Edwards, a Well-Known
Ohio Physician

Dr. F. M. Edwards for 17 years treated scores of women for liver and bowel ailments. During these years he gave to his patients a prescription made of a few well-known vegetable ingredients mixed with olive oil, naming them Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets. You will know them by their olive color.

These tablets are wonder-workers on the liver and bowels, which cause normal action, carrying off the waste and poisonous matter in one's system.

If you have a pale face, sallow look, dull eyes, pimples, coated tongue, headaches, a listless, no-good feeling, all out of sorts, inactive bowels, you take one of Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets nightly for a time and note the pleasing results.

Thousands of women as well as men take Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets—the successful substitute for calomel—now and then just to keep in the pink of condition. 10c and 25c per box. All druggists.

As a buyer of advertising space you have a right to know, and you should know, the truth about the circulation of the medium in which you are spending your good money. The Audit Bureau of Circulations is an organization founded for the purpose of investigating and reporting on the circulation claims of newspapers (those who will allow investigation) so that the advertiser may have full knowledge of that paper's circulation, the number of copies printed, paid for and where the said newspaper is actually distributed. In Oakland the TRIBUNE is the only Oakland paper that is a member of the A. B. C.

Pershing's Men on French Soil, Kinema Feature

"FATTY" ARBUCKLE

Jane Cowl in "Spreading Dawn" and Fatty in His Latest Comedy.

Three big features go to make up a sensational program at the Kinema today, starting with Jane Cowl in the famous Saturday Evening Post story, "Spreading Dawn" by Basil King, delving deep in one of the most profound love affairs of two wars, with its effect on the numerous sweethearts of our own Sammie now at the front.

Next is the startling picture taken right at the front in our own camp among our own boys, who are training for the battle line under their French tutors, learning all of the latest methods and showing the many honors being showered on our fighters. This is the first showing of these pictures in California.

Last and by no means least comes Fatty in his latest comedy, "Oh, Doctor," wherein Fatty plays doctor, lover and general riot producer throughout two reels of side-tickling fun.

NEW VICTOR HITS IN NOVEMBER LIST

One of the noblest poems of James Whitcomb Riley, "The Bells of the Village," set to music by Irving T. Benson, sung by the superb voice of Alma Gluck is among the list of new Victor records for November. Also included in the list are "The Girl Who Said 'I Love You'" and "The Girl Who Said 'I Love You'" sung by the beautiful voice of Sally Hamilton in her realistic manner.

McCormack is presented in a war song, "Send Me Away With a Smile," sung with his persuasive charm of voice. Giuseppe de Luca is heard in the sparkling "The Girl Who Said 'I Love You'" and the soprano marvel of the year, gives a wonderful interpretation of "The Girl Who Said 'I Love You'."

Violin records are well to the fore in the list. Michele Elman in "The Girl Who Said 'I Love You'" and Fritz Kreisler in a version of Paderewski's famous minuet, "The Girl Who Said 'I Love You'."

Those who like the pathetic with their patriotism will welcome "Somewhere in France" by "The Girl Who Said 'I Love You'" and "The Girl Who Said 'I Love You'" by Charles H. Hart. There is also "Break the News to Mother," by the Shanties of the "The Girl Who Said 'I Love You'."

Other interesting numbers are given by the Athenian mandolin quartet, "The Girl Who Said 'I Love You'." and "The Girl Who Said 'I Love You'."

Two hymns made famous at Billy Sunday's meetings are sung by Homer Roden and "The Girl Who Said 'I Love You'."

The American quartet offers "The Girl Who Said 'I Love You'." and "The Girl Who Said 'I Love You'."

Recruit Burglar
SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 30.—If the British recruiting station here had sent Ray Robinson promptly to England after his enlistment instead of waiting for a batch of enlisted men, he would not be facing a second penitentiary sentence for burglary.

Ray Robinson, 1823 San Pablo avenue, and Leslie Whitehurst, 631 Walla Vista, Oakland; George M. Donahue, 2 The Uplands, and Walter Wallace Seaton, 1341 Peralta avenue, Berkeley, and Walter H. Schroeder, 510 Central avenue, Alameda.

The second university extension course navigation class will be started Monday, November 5, in the ferry building.

TO STOP SPEEDING

Chief of Police Henry Nedderman has taken steps to prohibit speeding at streets crossed by the lines of the Key Route and the Southern Pacific interurban lines as the result of numerous accidents that have occurred recently, caused by reckless violation of the traffic laws.

'ERSTWHILE SUSAN' DAIMONY, LAUGHABLE

If the technically inclined must have their analysis it is no more than just to say that "Erstwhile Susan," Henrietta Crossman's vehicle at the Macdonough, twinkles in the dim-colored theatrical sky because of characterization, situations and excellence of company. Those who care naught for explanations, like, admire, respect and laugh at this play for no other reason than that it is something which tickles the throat for mirth or sorrow—as the case may be.

In these stirring times of motion picture ingenuities, with alleged salaries resembling in size our latest Liberty loan, it is good to know that someone, somewhere, is keeping alive the beacon of drama—America's drama.

Those who help to make "Erstwhile Susan" the dainty, laughable, sturdy, sad play it is entitled to a big vote of thanks. Last night's generous audience called in favor of every one on the stage, the playwright and the management.

As a fairy god and step-mother, with a mysterious "past" and plenty of future, Henrietta Crossman as Juliet (erstwhile Susan) Miller, steps into the very Pennsylvania Dutch household of Barnaby Dreary (remarkably well enacted by Dodson Mitchell) and cleans out the cobwebs. Miss Crossman is of an older school—but what a school, what a school! Would that more of our self-styled actors might attend it.

Anyhow, Juliet rescues Barnaby Dreary, the family drudge, places her on a pumpkin stagecoach of education and marries her off at last to a real prince. The contrast between Mitchell's Dreary and Miss Crossman's Juliet held everyone breathless with delight.

Thomas Mitchell as Jacob Dreary, older son and real chunk off the old block, did sterling work.

Ann Mason, as the stoop-shouldered drudge who becomes a princess, brought sincerity and beauty into a rather difficult and trying role. In her quiet interpretation one may find every reason to believe that this young woman's dramatic depths have not yet been sounded. The contrast of her life as the drudge and that of the big world is excellent. After Miss Crossman's role—this is the important feminine one.

Joseph Allenton, Coates Gwynne, Robert B. Williams, Bertha Kent and a whole lot more completed a cast such as Oakland hasn't seen in many days.—H. M. L.

SEEK EVIDENCE

PARIS, Oct. 30.—Continuing their efforts to obtain evidence for the trial of the assassin of the president, the police today raided the offices in Lyons, Bordeaux and other provincial cities of L'Action Francaise, the royalist organ whose editor, Leon Daudet, is under investigation.

Investigations also were conducted in the offices of several other persons who were searched and quantities of documents were seized.

GIRLS! MAKE A BEAUTY LOTION WITH LEMONS

At the cost of a small jar of ordinary cold cream one can prepare a full quart of the most wonderful skin softener and complexion beautifier, by squeezing the juice of two fresh lemons into a bottle containing three ounces of cold cream.

Care should be taken to strain the juice through a fine cloth so no lemon pulp gets in, then this lotion will keep fresh for months. Every woman knows that lemon juice is used to bleach and remove such blemishes as sallowness, freckles and tan, and is the ideal skin softener, smoother and beautifier.

Just try it! Get three ounces of cold cream from any pharmacy and two lemons from the grocer and make up a quart of this sweetly fragrant lemon lotion and massage it daily into the face, neck, arms and hands. It naturally should help to soften, freshen, bleach and bring out the roses and beauty of any skin. It is wonderful to smoothen rough, red hands.—Advertisement.

Today's Beauty Help

We find you can bring out the beauty of your hair to its very best advantage by washing it with canthrox. It makes a very simple, inexpensive shampoo, which cleanses the hair and scalp thoroughly of all the dandruff, dirt and excess oil, leaving a wonderfully clean, wholesome feeling.

After its use you will find that the hair dries quickly and evenly, is never streaked in appearance and is always bright, soft and fluffy; so fluffy in fact that it looks more abundant than it is, and so soft that arranging it becomes a pleasure. Just use a teaspoonful of canthrox which you can get from any good druggist, dissolve it in a cup of hot water, and make a full cup of shampoo liquid, enough so it is easy to apply it to all the hair instead of just the top of the head.—Advertisement.

"My poor lady's foot is again beautiful"

Women's Clubdom

By Edna B. Kinard

The many stores and ice cream parlors of Berkeley have joined in the food conservation service to the government. They have been asked for their co-operation by the Mobilized Women's Organizations of the city, and their pledge has been given accordingly, not only to the spirit but the letter of the food pledge. During the period of war, while men and women and little children are crying aloud for sugar, the Berkeley women have been busy in candy and sherbets. And the people of Berkeley have in turn given assurance that to these pleasure dishes they will lend support.

Although the food experts who had dreamed of a magnificent army of women, properly officered and equipped for caring for the conservation interests, abandoned the plan some few weeks ago, the Berkeley women adhered to the idea, with modifications of their own. They elected a general with captains and lieutenants who by Thursday evening will have made a complete survey of the entire city, presenting the pledge blank for signatures. The late week will be given over to re-covering the field and perfecting the drive.

Every child in the public and private schools has been offered a food pledge with simple explanation. And the students have determined among themselves that substitutes in sweetmeats shall be popularized during the winter. There is a splendid army of young girls and boys signed up to obey the elastic suggestions of the administration.

In Wheeler Hall tonight the city of Berkeley is rallying at an important meeting addressed by Dr. Ray Lyman Wilbur, president of Stanford University, and Mrs. Shelley Tolhurst.

WOMEN DOING MEN'S WORK

One of the most striking results of the great war in Europe is the extent to which women are doing the work of men. Travelers to England and France report that practically every able-bodied man is in uniform and women by the thousands are engaged in doing men's work—acting as conductors and drivers on the cars and doing all sorts of heavy work besides. This shows unexpected possibilities in what has been mistakenly called the weaker sex. Women are subject to ailments which men do not have, and when no ailment becomes weak, helpless suffering. But a remedy has been found. For forty years, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has been making such women well and strong, and as able to do work as any other woman.—Advertisement.

Society

Seventy little children, their ages ranging from one and a half to thirteen years, are the charges of the West Oakland Home and must receive daily the proper care and treatment to keep them well and able-bodied. To do this the West Oakland Home must raise upwards of $1500 a month which sum is the actual running expenses of that institution. This year the Home has been put to a heavy extra expense as it was necessary to have the buildings renovated, new plumbing put in, and other necessary things done to protect the health of the little ones. And so the Annual Dinner is coming. This is the way in which the board of directors plan to swell its fund for the year's running expenses.

Every week parties have been given at the homes of different members and the funds have been used to make attractive the various doll booths and concessions for the coming fair.

The following committees are planning the sweets for the doll show: Mrs. J. J. Jones, Mrs. E. J. Jones, Mrs. Harry Anderson, Mrs. George Cockerton, Mrs. James Dunn, Mrs. W. E. Pites, Mrs. A. F. Gumbal, Mrs. Mina Gleason, Mrs. Charles Gompertz, Mrs. H. R. Thompson, Miss Jean Idaho Murphy, Miss Elizabeth Smilie.

Cake—Mrs. H. D. Rowe, Mrs. Henry B. Mehrmann, Mrs. Lewis Hilborn, Mrs. George Ross, Mrs. J. B. Shafherst, Miss Eda Curdits, Miss Katherine Gray, Mrs. J. C. Lammert, Mrs. S. J. Halse, Mrs. J. H. Halse, Mrs. C. W. Gallagher, Mrs. Glenn Barnhart, Mrs. F. R. Chadwick, Mrs. C. W. Orr.

Mr. and Mrs. William A. Stuart are spending their honeymoon in the southern part of the state, having made the trip by motor. Mrs. Stuart was Miss Elizabeth Ennis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James P. Ennis of this city, the wedding of the young couple having taken place Thursday evening at St. Mary's Church, Rev. Father Dempsey officiating. Mrs. Geneva Lamb McKinty played the bridal march. Attending the bride was Miss Loretta Stuart, sister of the bridegroom, who wore a gown of pale pink georgette crepe and carried pink Cecil Bruner roses.

Mrs. Stuart's wedding gown was a pretty design of white satin and silver completed with the bridal veil of tulle. She carried a shower of lilies of the valley and Irish Elegance roses. Roy J. Ennis was best man for his brother.

An informal reception for the immediate family and wedding supper was served at the home of the bride's parents following the marriage. The bride is a graduate of the College of the Holy Name of this city, and formerly made her home in Virginia City, Nevada.

Mr. Stuart is the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Stuart and is connected with the Central National Bank, of Oakland.

The engagement of Miss Sadie Fredericks, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Fredericks, of Seventh Avenue, and Howard Pollard of Alameda, was announced Saturday afternoon at a pretty bridge luncheon given at the bride-elect at her home. She is one of the popular girls of the bay cities and is a graduate of the University of California. She is member of the Beta Tau Alpha sorority.

Mr. Pollard comes from a well known family of Alameda. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Pollard. Miss Fredericks and her fiancé will share the honors with Mr. and Mrs. Donald Pearson next week at the dancing party which Mr. and Mrs. Eric Pollard are to give at their home.

In honor of her young daughter Ruth, Mrs. George Koppel entertained friends Sunday afternoon at her home in Seminary avenue, the occasion marking the birthday of the young guest. A number of the school set were guests.

Tomorrow afternoon Mrs. Charles Dougherty had bidden her most intimate friends to luncheon and bridge, the affair to be given at the Hotel Oakland. Mrs. Dougherty has taken apartments at the hotel for the winter and will spend the remainder of the season in Oakland.

The "Sammy Girls" of Stockton entertained Batters C under command of Captain Bedford Boyes Saturday, sending them back to the capital with a gift of $250 for their band equipment. The patriotic little group of girls with their invitation sent transportation funds for the entire company. After their arrival at the Stockton Rotary Club presented them with a handsome silk banner.

Supper at the Young Men's Christian Association was followed by a dance at one of the larger halls. Captain Boyes is the son of Dr. E. J. Boyes and Mrs. Boyes. He is expected shortly to get orders which will send him from the Presidio.

Miss Muriel Zahn, who is to entertain at the Perla apartments November 5 for Miss Adele Scott, has asked to share her hospitality upon that occasion Miss Carol Pardee, Miss Rosalind Cassidy, Miss Wilma Whitman, Miss Ethel Perkins, Miss Helen Mehrmann, Miss Doris Bornemann and Miss Scott, the guest of honor.

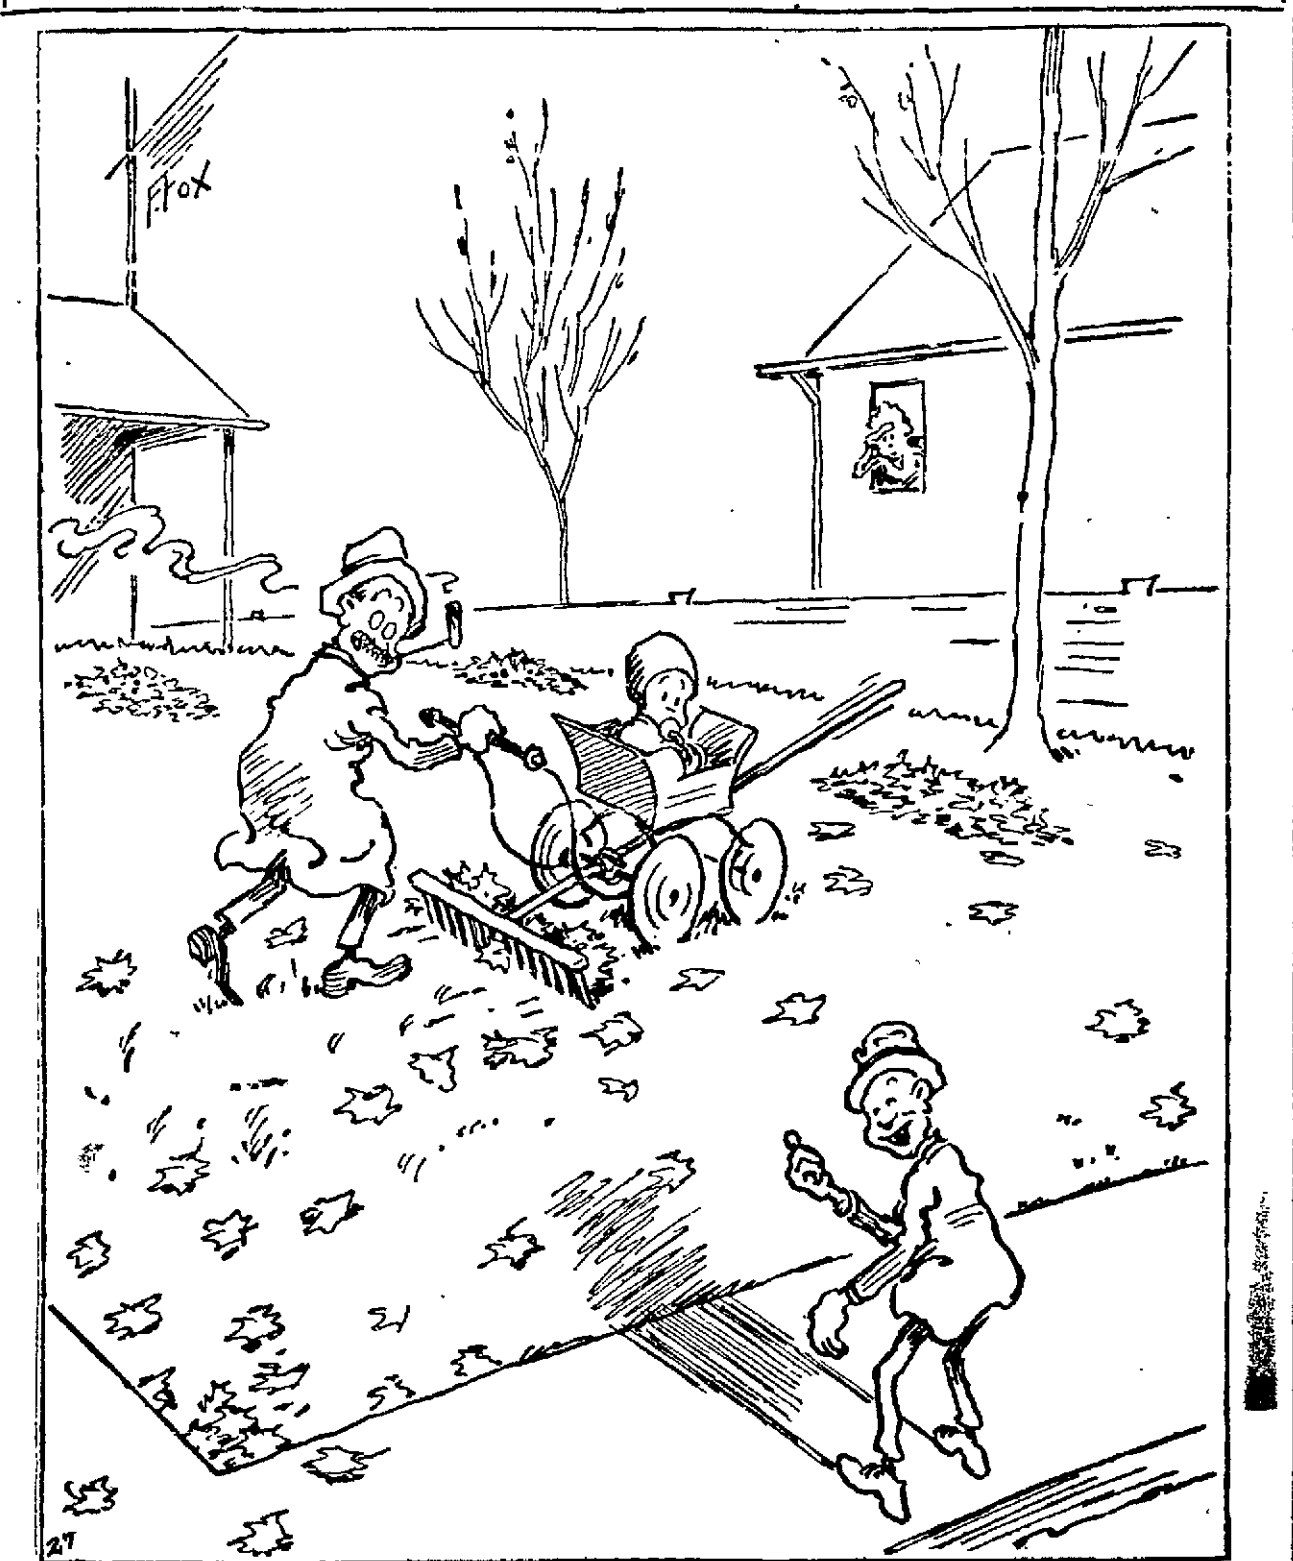

Lieutenant Herbert Sydney Jones, U. S. N., and his bride (Enid Wilson) are expected to return from their wedding trip next week. The marriage of the dainty debutante and the young navy officer was a delightful surprise to friends assembled at the home of Mrs. Douglas R. Wilson, the bride's mother, Thursday afternoon, October 25, the Episcopal service being read. There were no attendants upon the couple, the ceremony having taken place shortly following a wire from the bridegroom-elect informing them of his expected furlough. Wedding plans were hastily made and the guests at tea found themselves welcomed to the marriage of the hostess' daughter. A graduate from one of the exclusive girls' schools of Berkeley, Mrs. Jones has long been a favorite with the younger set. She is one of the most youthful brides of the west.

Lieutenant Jones is a member of a prominent eastern family. Miss Adele Scott, whose marriage to Frank Roller is to take place November 10, has named her bridal attendants. Miss Rosalind Cassidy will be maid of honor and the coteries of bridesmaids, Miss Frances Whitte-sell of Los Angeles, Miss Suzanne Newton of San Francisco, Miss Muriel Zahn, Miss Helen Mehrmann and Miss Carol Pardee.

Little Dissect Mills will be flower girl and G. Galland Mitchell best man, Friday afternoon Miss Mehrmann

Dreaming Lady

by Anne Katherine Green.

"I didn't expect—that is, I hoped you would be able to point out, by some power we cannot of course explain, just the spot where the paper lies, without my having to tell all that. Some people can, you know."

"Ah, I understand. You regard me as unfit for practical work, so credited me with occult powers. But that is where you made a mistake, Mrs. Quintard; I'm nothing if not practical. And let me add that I'm as secret as the grave concerning what my clients tell me. Relate the whole circumstance or dismiss me from the case. You can have done nothing more foolish or wrong than many."

"Oh, don't say things like that!" broke in the poor woman in a tone of great indignation. "I have done nothing and I can call either foolish or wicked. I am simply very unfortunate, and being sensitive. But this isn't telling the story. I'll try to make it all clear; but if I do not and show any confusion, stop me and help me out with questions. One night, shortly after my brother had been given up by the physicians, I was called to his bedside for a confidential talk. As he had received that day a very large amount of money, he was going to hand it over to me for Clement, but it was for something more serious than this he had summoned me. When he was quite sure that we were alone he told me that he had changed his mind as to the disposal of his property and that it was to Clement and his children, and not to Carlos, he was going to leave this house and the bulk of his money. That he had a new will."

"The tea which Mrs. George Hammer gave this afternoon for two lovely bride-elects, Miss Henshaw and Miss Elsie Posey, and Mrs. Ransome Henshaw, one of the brides of the season, was a smart affair attended by many of the friends of the hostess and honor guests. The home was handsomely appointed in a profusion of chrysanthemums and russet and gold chrysanthemums.

Plans for the wedding of Miss Henshaw and Merrill Dow are rapidly being made, the bride-elect having chosen for her attendant, Miss Doris Bornemann as bridesmaid. It is probable that Mrs. Herbert Hall will be matron of honor, but this is all undecided until it is certain whether or not Lieutenant Hall can secure a furlough. Only relatives and intimate friends are to be guests at the marriage, but as these number a good many, there will be several scores to witness the ceremony.

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Walton are sending out invitations for a large tea to be given at their home in Berkeley, Sunday afternoon, November 11. The Waltons intend to close their home the middle of next month to go to Marysville, as the elder Walton has turned the management of their ranch over to his son.

Mrs. William Campbell gave an informal bridge party this afternoon at her home, asking twenty young matrons to share her hospitality. An informal tea followed the session at cards.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Lacey Brayton are to entertain for their young daughter, Miss Theresa Aiston Williams, Friday evening of this week, with a dancing party to be given at the Claremont Country Club. There will be a number of dinner parties preceding the dance.

WILL OFFER PLAY

Four acts, will be offered by the pupils of Lourdes Academy this evening in the parish hall of St. Anthony's church at East Sixteenth street and Sixteenth avenue. The Sisters of Mercy who conduct the academy have been preparing the pupils for the presentation of the play for the past month, and at the rehearsal held Sunday there was a large gathering who enjoyed the play.

KAISER'S EFFIGY

GARY, Ind., Oct. 30.—The Kaiser will be burned in effigy tomorrow evening at the annual Halloween celebration of Gary children at Jackson park.

So deplored had been made known to the servants and was much relieved to find that, with the exception of Mr. Delahunt, she had not spoken of it to any one but Clement. And he will never mention it," she declared, "not even to bear without knowing how near she stood to a fortune."

"Oh, she will have her fortune!" Violet confidently replied. "In time, the lawyer who drew up the will will appear. But what you want is an immediate triumph over the cold Carlos, and I hope you may have it. Ah!"

This expletive as a sigh of sheer surprise. Mrs. Quintard had unlocked the library door, and Violet had been given her first glimpse of this, the finest room in New York.

As Violet's eyes rested on the five windows of deeply stained glass which faced her from the southern end, Mrs. Quintard indignantly exclaimed: "And Carlos would turn this into a billiard room!"

Violet asked whether Mrs. Quintard was quite positive as to this room being the one in which she had hidden the precious document.

"You had better talk to Hetty," said that lady, as a stout woman of most prepossessing appearance entered just inside the door. "Hetty, you will answer any questions that this young lady may put. If anyone can help us, she can. But first, what news from the sick-room?"

"Nothing good. The doctor has just come for the third time today. Mrs. Brooks is crying and even the children are dumb with fear."

"I will go. I must see the doctor. I must tell him to keep Clement alive by any means till—"

She did not wait to say what; but Violet understood and felt her heart grow heavy. Could it be that her employer considered this the gay and easy task she had asked for?

The next minute she was putting her first question: "Hetty, what did you see in Mrs. Quintard's action last night, to make you surmise that she left the missing document in this room?"

"My mistress has spoken of her infirmity."

Garis' Bedtime Stories

(By Howard R. Garis)

Uncle Wigwag Longears, the nice rabbit gentleman, stood on the front porch of his hollow stump bungalow in Woodland looking at the calendar. That's the thing by which he told the days of the week.

"Let's see, now," said the bunny uncle to himself, twirling his pink nose like a lemon peanut sandwich. "This is Monday, tomorrow is Tuesday and the next day—"

"Why, the next day is Nurse Jane's birthday!" cried Uncle Wigwag, all excited like. "I almost forgot it! I must get her something nice. She always remembers my birthdays, so why should I forget hers? I'll get her a nice present."

But that was more easily said than done for when the bunny uncle thought of the muskrat lady housekeeper he seemed to have everything he might buy.

"I could get her a nice new pink bow for her hair, or perhaps a pair of rubbers," said the bunny to himself. "But I want something different. I know what I'll do! I'll go over and see Mrs. Kinkytail, the monkey mother of Jacko, and Juro, and I'll ask her what she thinks Nurse Jane would like for her birthday."

Over the fields and through the woods to the monkey lady's house hopped the rabbit gentleman.

"Something for Nurse Jane's birthday?" repeated Mrs. Kinkytail. "Why don't you get her a bag?"

"Do you mean a paper bag from the store?" asked Uncle Wigwag. "If you do there is no use in getting that. When I bring Nurse Jane bags from the store she always takes out what is in them and throws the bags away."

"I'll do it!" cried Uncle Wigwag, and away he hopped to the end of a cent store, where, from the cute little girl mouse clerk, he bought a lovely green and purple knitting bag.

"It was quite large and would hold many balls of yarn, to say nothing of the knitting needles, the sweater, scarf and other things. Get Nurse Jane a knitting bag."

"I hope she'll like it," said Uncle Wigwag, as he hopped on through the woods with Nurse Jane's new bag. "I do hope she will like it, and yet I am not quite sure."

"But I am quite sure I shall like you!" suddenly said a voice from behind a rustling bush. "In fact, I am positive I shall like you. And I'll very soon know for certain, for I'm going to try a little bite out of your left ear right now."

And there, in the dark, a big stump jumped the bad old skeezicks. The skeezicks, as I have told you, is a sort of a mud turtle mosquito animal, very unpleasant and biting.

"You are—ar—ar—going to take a nip out of me?" asked Uncle Wigwag, out of uncertainty like.

"I am," was the positive answer of the skeezick.

"But first wouldn't you let me go home and take Nurse Jane her bag?" asked the rabbit.

"Indeed I will not!" bleated the skeezicks, making a grab for the bunny. Copyright, 1917, by McClure Newspaper.

FOR "SMOKE" FUND

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 30.—The Tobacco Company of California, Inc., today acknowledged a check for $115 as a contribution to the soldiers' tobacco fund from Mrs. Minnie S. Chapman of Oakland. This amount was raised at a dance given by Mrs. Chapman October 19.

Wouldn't you like to give the family as light and fluffy muffins as they've ever eaten—made without expensive butter?

We know of no better way to introduce you to good, wholesome Cottolene than through this muffin recipe. If you should use your own recipe, use one-third less of Cottolene than you would of butter.

RECIPE

Muffins
1½ tablespoons melted Cottolene; 1 tablespoon sugar; 1½ cups milk; 1 egg; 3 cups sifted flour; 3 level teaspoons baking powder; 1 scant teaspoon salt. Sift together flour, baking powder and salt. Add melted Cottolene, sugar, egg and milk.

COURT REFUSES TO CALL SPECIAL JURY

"This court is not going to act as a grand jury," declared Police Judge George Samuels today in denying the motion of Attorney John L. McVey that an elisor be appointed to empanel the next jury in the case of Harry Gee, accused of selling lottery tickets. The case was set for trial on November 9 at which time Chief Henry Neederman stated a jury "consistent in character to the last one will be subpoenaed."

When the case was called for the last time, Police Judge Samuels told Attorney McVey challenged the jury and in view of the fact that the case could not be heard on that day Prosecuting Attorney William J. Hennossey asked that the panel be dismissed, which was

Attorney McVey charged that heads of the police department had conspired to have a jury subpoenaed that would be favorable to the prosecution for alleged political reasons.

Judge Samuels said today that there was no issue before the court and that he did not intend to take the position of anticipating that there would be an issue regarding the procedure. He said that when an issue arose then would be time to meet it and that he would not appoint an elicitor but leave the selection of a jury panel to the proper court officials under regular procedure.

"We welcome any information that Attorney McVey may give us in the matter," said Judge Samuels.

FOOD SAVING.

"The chief part of the burden of finding food supplies for the peoples associated with us in war falls for the present on the American people, and the drain upon supplies on such a scale necessarily affects the prices of our necessities of life."

"To provide an adequate supply of food both for our own soldiers on the other side of the seas and for the civil populations and the armies of the allies is one of our first and foremost obligations; for if we are to maintain their constancy in this struggle for the independence of all nations, we must first maintain their health and strength.
The solution of our food problems is therefore dependent upon the individual service of every man and woman and child in the United States."

"We cannot accomplish our objects in this great war without sacrifice and devotion, and in no direction can that sacrifice be shown more than by each home and public eating place in the country pledging its support to the food administration and complying with its requests."—President Wilson.

In this statement to the American people yesterday the President puts directly up to the consumers of the country the duty of doing a large part in winning the war. He asks the people to mobilize for the saving and conservation of food stuffs, just as they have mobilized their dollars and as the government has mobilized the men of military age.

Instructions as to how this may be done will be issued from time to time by the federal food administration, presided over by Mr. Herbert C.
Hoover. The people are asked this week to pledge their co-operation with Mr. Hoover in administering the food resources of the nation in such a manner as will make them do the most good in the fight for democracy and the defense of the nation.

The people are not to be asked to practice harsh economy and to stint themselves in their daily menus. Conservation is the keynote of the food administration's policy, with wholesome suggestions for the readjustment of the diet with a view to making the food supply go further and provision more people among the allied nations.

Every individual, household and public eating place should help in this work. It is patriotic to do so and a gross neglect of national duty to fail.
Aside from conserving the national food supply and thus materially aiding our allies, a regime of conservation will be a much-needed treatment in self-discipline and inculcation of thrift which will be of lasting value. It will also help to beat the food profiteers.

THE ITALIAN REVERSE.

The Italian reverses are indisputably serious.
Cadorna's men have been rolled back from the Bainizza plateau, where they could almost reach with their heaviest guns the important strategic centers of Trieste and Laibach. The German and Austrian commanders have been able to assemble on the Gorizia front a force of men and material which for the time being was irresistible.

Fighting in this sector during the last few days is a notification to the allies that they cannot depend on the reports of scarcity of food and ammunition and lowered morale among the enemy forces. The Central Powers have shown a terrific "punch" in a moment when allied confidence and prospects were very high.

The allied governments have not been deceived in this respect. But a certain portion of the people of the allied countries have, in a sort of blind optimism, put much faith in the publicity matter which the very efficient Berlin censor has permitted to be sent out. The Tribune has frequently stated that victory cannot be achieved except by preponderance of armed men and military material.

However, the Italian retreat in the Isonzo region is not a decisive factor; it contributes only to delay of the final result. The Italians will "come back" of their own accord, and in addition they will have assistance from their allies, including the United States. It is a fact of modern warfare, so clearly demonstrated by the English and French on the western front, that sufficiently strong massed artillery attacks can always make temporary progress against the enemy, but the attackers cannot go beyond a certain distance from their base until transport lines are established.

That was what stopped Cadorna at the threshold of Trieste, and it will help to stop the Austro-Germans at the Italian border.

"ACADEMIC FREEDOM."

An event of general interest and of particular importance to public educators and the students of the United States was the dismissal recently of two professors of Columbia University for public statements which, in the opinion of the trustees of the university, were improper observations on a policy and the present program of the national government. One of the dismissed professors charged that the trustees had intruded upon his academic freedom. Some students and members of the faculty spoke in his defense.

This attitude of the former Columbia University professor indicates a tendency observable in many instructors to consider their views and undisputed freedom of action and speech more important than the ideals and the traditions of the institutions of which they may be part, and indeed an insignificant part. A few—not many—have unhesitatingly assumed to use the prestige which their connection with a famous institution bestowed upon them, and without which they would be near-nominalities, to exploit personal views at absolute variance with those of the institution.

President Nicholas Murray Butler of Columbia University has expressed himself quite comprehensively on this subject. It was the institution over which he presides that dismissed the two professors referred to above. Yet he was not thinking of them when he compiled his annual report of November 7, 1910—seven years ago. The following extract from that report is quoted from a recent issue of the Columbia Alumni News:

"There is room in a great university for scholars of every conceivable type. The recluse and the dreamer has his place, as well as the practical man who unites a love of scholarship with skill in affairs and who brings the two into constant relation to each other. A poem, a musical composition or a new synthesis in the higher reaches of pure mathematics brings luster to a university, as does a new invention in the field of engineering, a new discovery in the laboratory or a new application of old principles to present economic and political needs.
Freedom of the spirit is the essence of a university's life. Whatever else is done or left undone, that freedom must be made secure."

"But freedom imposes responsibility, and there are distinct limitations, which ought to be self-imposed, upon that academic freedom which was won at so great a cost, and which has produced such noble results. These are the limitations imposed by common morality, common sense, common loyalty and a decent respect for the opinions of mankind.
A teacher or investigator who offends against common morality has destroyed his academic usefulness, whatever may be his intellectual attainments.
A teacher who offends against the plain dictates of common sense is in like situation. A teacher who cannot give to the institutions which maintain him common loyalty and that kind of service which loyalty implies, ought not to be retained through fear of clamor or of criticism. Then, too, a university teacher owes a decent respect to the opinions of mankind. Men who feel that their personal convictions require them to treat the mature opinion of the civilized world without respect or with contempt, may well be given an opportunity to do so from private station and without the added influence and prestige of a university's name."

The following from the same report might have been written today in answer to the complaints of the discharged instructors:

"It is the responsibility of the trustees to give to academic freedom that constant and complete protection which it must have if the true university spirit is to be fostered and preserved, and at the same time to maintain the integrity of the charge committed to their care. This must be done without fear or favor, whatever the consequences may be."

In his address to the alumni on commencement day, June 6, 1917, President Butler uttered a warning, which if heeded would have prevented any misunderstanding:

"So long as national policies were in debate we gave complete freedom, as is our wont and as becomes a university, freedom of assembly, freedom of speech and freedom of publication to all members of the university who in lawful and decent ways might wish to inform and to guide public policy.
Wrongheadedness and folly we might deplore, but we are bound to tolerate. So soon, however, as the nation spoke by the Congress and by the President, declaring that it would volunteer as one man for the protection and defense of civil liberty and self-government, conditions sharply changed. What had been tolerated before became intolerable now. What had been folly was now treason. In your presence, I speak by authority for the whole university—for my colleagues of the trustees and for my colleagues of the faculties—when I say, with all possible emphasis, that there is and will be no place in Columbia University, either on the rolls of its faculties or on the rolls of its students, for any person who opposes or who counsels opposition to the effective enforcement of the laws of the United States, or who acts, speaks or writes treason."

THE TRIBUNE quotes the above statements approvingly because they seem to sum up concisely and with absolute correctness the right view of a much debated subject. They are premised by the doctrine that the safety of the nation of which we are citizens is the greatest consideration of the citizen, superior to any private opinion or purpose in such an emergency as the waging of a war of national defense.
With this doctrine all good and loyal citizens agree, per se.

When the federal food administration fixes prices of food and other necessities it assumes the duty to enforce observance of the price schedule by the producers, middlemen and retailers. Having been clothed with proper authority, it has prepared to put all dealers who refuse to cooperate with it out of business. That is a drastic expedient, but it will be effective.

NOTES and COMMENT

Governor Capper declares that the fixing of the price of wheat took fifty millions out of the farmers without making any difference to the consumers, for the price of bread has nowhere been lowered. It looks as though a disputant will have to be well equipped to refute him.

Hillquit, the Socialist candidate for mayor of New York, is being violently opposed by Charles Edward Russell and his group, who charge him with favoring a peace that would save the German "face." Of course, for a great community like New York to elect a mayor opposed to what is being done by this country as to this war "would comfort the enemy."

The San Diego Union records a patriotic progress: "Two or three months ago Robert Tufts shook the dust of the Union's art room from his trousers and went out and enlisted in the ambulance corps of the army.
Word was received here yesterday that he is no longer Private Bob Tufts but Sergeant Tufts. He is at the Presidio at San Francisco."

A San Francisco man withdraws from a candidacy for the reason that he hasn't a chance. If all the others who haven't a chance would do likewise, as he suggests, the situation would be vastly simplified; but probably not another one is in this category—at least, as they all look at it.

And even the Filipinos caught the contagion. They came through with three millions in the Liberty loan, which is entirely creditable, considering everything.

We can see that this Food Pledge drive is not going to be enthusiastically popular everywhere. "Buy less" and lighten up in the consumption of food means a curtailment of business with the purveyors.

In the presence of great national distractions, so many turned out Sunday to witness the finish of a rather uninteresting season demonstrates the hold that baseball has upon us. With all its later disappointments the Oakland fan loves it still.

The way the Santa Rosa Republican looks at it: "Seems as if the telephone company and their operators might reach an agreement before rather than after a strike, with all its attendant miseries for the public."

We read that "food speculators are warned again." It is not entirely plain why they should have had a second hunch. Indeed, the first one should not have been necessary, with a good patriotic sense of things working freely.

A delegation of American Congressmen is in England, and is reported to have been present at an historical event—the playing of "Star-Spangled Banner" at Windsor Castle for the first time. That this hymn, inspired by a British defeat, should be rendered thus in an abode of British royalty, is something, indeed.

There is reason to apprehend all sorts of trouble tomorrow if the program is carried out at the telephone centrals.

Halloween! What reminiscences there will be of putting a wagon on a roof, a cow in the belfry! Nowadays the celebrations are much tamer—removing gates from their hinges and rigging ticktacks against window panes.

SPIRIT OF THE STATE PRESS

Professor Gayley says regarding pacifists, they are either fools or knaves; and the Rev. George H.
Greenfield of Santa Barbara is about of a mind that he is the former.
He went down to South Pasadena to attend a clandestine meeting of "pacifists" that was raided by the Home Guard, and when he got home his parishioners promptly declared his pulpit vacant.—Santa Rosa Republican.

Report comes to Tracy that fish are dying in Old River back of the Whitehall ranch by the thousands from some peculiar cause. The cause seems to be affecting every variety of fish, from the catfish to the big bass. So numerous have the dead bodies of the fish become that residents along the river have almost been driven from their homes by the stench.—Livermore Echo.

The committee in charge of the expenditure of funds of the State designed to keep up its pioneer landmarks held a meeting last week and determined to erect near Marshall monument at Coloma a cottage for its guardian and a rest place for visitors, at a cost not to exceed $3000.
For a long time this cornerstone of pioneer days has been neglected to a great extent and the new structure will be of the greatest value to the people of the State who make journeys to visit the spot where the first gold was discovered.—Sacromento News.

Stockton is to be congratulated on the recent sale of the Stockton Mail to the Stockton Record, and on the resultant consolidation of the two evening papers. The Mail was formerly a power in Stockton and in Central California, but since the deaths of both its former owners it has been a waning quantity.—Fresno Republican.

No newspaper ever told the truth plainly without stepping on some good citizen's corns. In ordinary times when there is nothing particular at stake it is often easier to let things slide as they are than to start a reform, but when the government of the United States is embroiled in a war with a powerful nation, and some-reform appears to be necessary to the success of the arms of the United States, there is no time to be polite in the matter. That's the way with the saloon question in Vallejo. There is no time to be meal-mouthed about the matter at all.—Vallejo Times.

THE IMMEDIATE CAMP-PROBLEM

The great problem of all the camps is the young man, just let loose from home ties, kicking into life on his

We have got to help save him from his reach the demoralizing, healthstitute that will appeal to him. We must give him a real show; he's a fine

BANK ASSETS OF STATE HIT BILLION MARK

That the combined assets of the banks of California have nearly reached the one billion-dollar mark is one of the interesting statements contained in the eighth annual report of State Superintendent of Banks W. R. Williams, just submitted to Governor William D. Stephens. The abnormal strains of the war have not produced any measurable disturbances in financial stability, and the only unusual condition has been a redistribution of credits made necessary by the withdrawals of savings deposits to pay for Liberty bonds and the conversion of current savings into the same channel on the installment plan.

"The combined assets of State banks, as disclosed by the report of June 30, 1917," declares Williams, "were $292,224,088.73, an increase over the previous year of an astonishing aggregate of $111,429,709.03. Some conception of the phenomenal growth of these institutions may be gained from the fact that in the fiscal year 1914-1915 there was a gain of approximately $14,500,000 in assets; in the year 1915-1916 the gain in assets was $38,000,000, and in the year 1916-1917 the increase was more than $111,000,000. The most conservative statement must record this financial fact as startling.

SURPRISING INCREASE NOTED.
"The aggregate of loans and discounts at the close of the fiscal year was $55,399,379.53, a surprising increase over the aggregate of the preceding year of $60,882,100.65. No better reflection of the remarkable expansion of the industrial life of the state may be given than in these extraordinary figures.

"During the year the aggregate of individual deposits increased by the astounding total of $39,065,148.79, the entire sum of these deposits being $768,371,340.45. There are 1,584,340 depositors, an increase of 109,526 during the year.

Organic changes, reflecting increased activity in departmental activity, were as follows: Four banks added each a commercial department; eleven institutions established savings departments; two added trust departments; twenty-two banks increased their capital stock; and in "During the year the banks of California increased their aggregate of paid-in capital in the sum of $2,245,738.34 and their surplus in the sum of $1,228,722.95.

NEW BANKS APPROVED.
"At the close of the fiscal year there were in the state system 447 banks with 126 branch offices. During the year thirteen new banks and twenty-four new branch offices were licensed.

"The year has been one of expanding opportunities, of increasing production and of augmented industrial, agricultural and manufacturing output. General business has been good; the crops generally have been heavy; industries have been active; construction, particularly in engineering and building, has been stimulated; bank clearings have increased; foreign trade is improving; money rates have shown no perceptible advance; labor is fully employed; agencies of transportation are abundantly occupied; the outlook is one for great activity."

Attractive French Girls Work for Alsace-Lorraine

MISS LYDIA and MISS JANET BLUMENTHAL, daughters of leader of movement for restoration of Alsace-Lorraine, who are now in America.

Will Visit Bay Region to Arouse Interest in Restoration to France

Lydia and Janet Blumenthal, daughters of Daniel Blumenthal, former Alsatian deputy in the Reichstag and mayor of Colmar in Alsace, are in America as attractive advocates for the restoration of Alsace-Lorraine to France when the final peace terms are arranged, and in their tour of the United States, they will be sought to the bay region to interest the Alsatian society in the movement. Blumenthal has just opened offices in New York for the World League for the Restoration of Alsace-Lorraine, of which he is president. Local branches of the league are to be formed in all the principal cities where there are citizens of Alsatian origin.

TELL THRILLING STORY.
The two plucky and pretty French girls tell a thrilling story of their flight from Alsace into Switzerland on the eve of German mobilization, July 31, 1914.

The girls were at the family summer home in the Vosges, not far from Colmar. They motored down to Colmar the afternoon of July 31. The place was in tumult. They learned that the German authorities had ordered Colmar under military rule and had forbidden civilians to leave the city. In response to their entreaties that he flee with them, their father protested that he could not desert his people. By happy chance, while the girls were with him an order arrived from the Prussian governor deposing Mayor Blumenthal and appointing in his place a German. Mr. Blumenthal knew by this act that he must get away at once or suffer arrest and imprisonment.

It was decided the girls should try to reach a quiet place in the woods and there await the father. They set out at once. They got safely past guards, although halted several times, picked up their father and motored him to the home of friends in a hamlet several miles on the road to Switzerland.

Relieved of immediate anxiety for their father, they turned their car about and ran back to Colmar, for they must have a supply of gasoline and they felt it necessary also to pick up a young male relative in the city.

TAKE RELATIVE HOME.
They got the gasoline and the young man, took him home, dressed him in some of their clothing and pulled a girl's motor cap down over his short hair. Fortunately, he was headless, with rosy cheeks and would be safe with them, so long as he did not betray himself by speech.

Night had come by the time they were ready to start. The girls were muffled and the boy rode between them. Alsatian guards were so busy as scarcely to observe them. German soldiers stopped them several times within the city limits, but each time the girls said they were wives of German officers, being sent off to safety. Even the rigid German military system was susceptible to the confusion of the moment. Once they encountered a German officer who knew them. He did not appear to recognize them.

There were seven hours of running through excited villages and desolate countryside, of being halted at railroad barriers by German sentries, passing with the magic explanation, "We are German officers' wives"; until at last they crossed the Swiss frontier.

"When we go back," Miss Lydia said finally, "Alsace is going to be a part of France once more," and Miss Janet nodded.

RETURNS TO JAIL

San Quentin gates will swing open to welcome Oscar Jacobson, the youthful Norwegian who violated his parole by going to Watsonville and changing his name to Schmidt. He was paroled after confessing to snatching a woman's purse. He was allowed to go on his promise to return to Norway. From Watsonville he wrote to a married woman living in East Oakland whose husband reported him to the district attorney. The husband refused to show the letters to the authorities and Jacobson declared there was nothing wrong in them. Judge Ogden expressed his regret for the necessity of sending him to state's prison.

DECLARES U.S. CANNOT STAY PHONE STRIKE

There will be no Federal mediation in the threatened strike of the telephone employees, despite the fact that Vernon Z. Reed is hastening home from Arizona at the request of Secretary of Labor Wilson for the purpose of endeavoring to bring about a temporary settlement. Such, at least, is the assertion of John Morganthaler, president of the Pacific District Council, No. 1, International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers, who gave out the following statement today:

"It is too late for government mediation. We will not treat with the government mediators, and their efforts will be useless. Our controversy is with the Pacific Telephone & Telegraph Company alone and we will only treat with them, government mediators to the contrary notwithstanding. Unless the company recedes from its present position, a strike of the telephone employees will be effective at midnight, and mean a complete walkout of 5000 electrical workers and telephone operators on the Pacific Coast.

NO CHANGE IN STAND.

General Superintendent B. B. Fullerton was advised of the stand taken by the union and said the company's position was the same as stated on Saturday, but he had no comment to make on the action of the International Brotherhood of the Possibility of the company changing from its present position.

The appeal for a Department of Labor mediator was telegraphed to Secretary Wilson, Clinton, Ark., by United States Senator Phelan and Attorney Gavin McNab, acting independently in the interests of public welfare. McNab had previously acted as personal representative of President Wilson in the shipyard strike.

Secretary Wilson telegraphed from Arizona today urging both sides to take no action until the arrival of Reed.

United States Immigration Commissioner Edward White and Assistant Commissioner William H. Boyce have been requested by Secretary Wilson to join with Reed in representing the government at the hearing.

FORM UNION HERE.

With a charter roll of 562 names, Oakland telephone operators last night completed the organization of their new union at a meeting in Blake Hall. Officers were elected, the union was organized and a membership campaign was begun.

The organization details were under the direction of Miss Anna Schinke, of Seattle; Miss Ellen Miller, Aberdeen; Mrs. Agnes Carlson, Portland, and Miss Nellie Holmes, Tacoma. A meeting will be called next week by the new union, in conjunction with Local 283, I. B. E. W., the linemen's organization, when definite demands will be made and a strike vote taken.

"Cured a 'Grouch' By Internal Baths"

Mr. Joseph A. Weis writes Dr. Chas. A. Tyrrell of New York, as follows: "On the 15th of June, 1915, I purchased a 'J. B. L. Cascade.' The results it has produced are simply marvellous. For 20 years I used cathartics, but have used nothing but the Cascade for almost a month. I feel like a new man. I was to be pleasant to everybody. Before I used the Cascade I was a grouch. Did not like anybody and could not be pleasant."

If you bathe internally with the "J. B. L. Cascade" you will find yourself always bright, confident and capable. Poisonous waste in the lower intestine makes us nervous, blue, dull and nervous. Internal baths are Nature's own cure for constipation—just antiseptic warm water properly applied. Drugs force Nature—the "J. B. L. Cascade" gently assists her. It is produced by Chas. A. Tyrrell, M. D., of New York, who has specialized on internal bathing for 25 years, and will be shown and explained to you by The Owl Drug Co., who will also be glad to give you free on request an interesting booklet called "Why Men of Today are Only 50% Efficient," which covers the subject in a very thorough way. Clip this out as a reminder, and ask

PASSION FOR FINE GARB IS DOWNFALL

A fondness for luxury and a passion for dress and display, aided by a genius for obtaining information concerning well-to-do families, especially information concerning family history, the ghost in the family closet and the like, all operated to make life easy for Fred H. Brokaw, now in the county jail for working his graft to obtain money from William D. Gray, a prominent resident of Berkeley. In order to obtain the money from Gray he posed as a well-to-do New Yorker, intimately acquainted with friends of Gray's in the east, and explained that he had lost his purse and was temporarily handicapped thereby. Gray gladly gave him the use of $60.

The "easy-come-easy-go-boy," as Judge Ogden characterized him this morning, pleaded guilty to the charge and asked for probation. Probation Officer Compton's report shows an almost enviable record of easy money acquisitions. Also it shows that there are nineteen

State Farmers Will Work Out Distribution Plan

A convention of California farmers, members of the farmers' union, will be held in December to work out plans for the distribution of produce at wholesale prices to members of unions affiliated with the California State Federation of Labor.

This was the announcement today of Paul Scharrenberg, secretary of the federation, who has just returned from San Diego, where, in conference with officials of the farmers' union, tentative arrangements for operation of the plan were discussed.

The convention will consist of delegates from the State Federation of Labor and the farmers' union. The convention city has not yet been decided upon.

WRECK OF S. P. FERRY IS PROBED

Investigation is being conducted today by Superintendent John A. Carson of the Southern Pacific Company into the causes underlying the accident in Oakland harbor last night, the company's ferry steamer Enclinal was rammed and disabled by the Western Fuel Company's tug Biddle, and finally abandoned by her crew on a sandbar. A government investigation by the Federal inspector of hulls and boilers will be started tomorrow.

That no lives were lost is considered a miracle. The Enclinal was in charge of Captain Nils A. Jacobsen and a crew of fifteen men. The Biddle was in command of Captain Andy Steele who was making his first trip as master of the tug following the retirement of Captain Charles F. Hall. The ferryboat was bound for the Southern Pacific shipyard at the foot of Adeline street when the powerful tug, which has been lying at the Moore and Scott shipyard dock, started to steam out into the stream.

Winter Leaguers to Meet Tomorrow Night in Final Meeting Before Opening

Richmond Players Balk at Cut in the Gate Receipts—Forfeit Causes Howl

Tomorrow night at Blankenship's Maryland Bowling Alleys, Seventeenth street, San Pablo and Telegraph, is the time and place for the final meeting of the club managers and league directors preliminary to the opening of play in the East-Bay Cities Midwinter Baseball League. The opening games are scheduled for next Sunday afternoon, and at tomorrow night's meeting the club managers will post their forfeit money and file their lists of players signed. Umpires for the Class A and Class B division games will be selected and complete arrangements will be made for the opening games.

There has been talk of Richmond having trouble signing up its players for the winter league season, but Manager Otto Detrich is confident that he will have his club lined up by tomorrow. Some of the players on the Richmond club who have been making a nice bit of pocket money every Sunday during the summer playing on a flat salary basis are loath to give up that fixed income. There has been talk of them not caring to sign up to play on a percentage basis for fear that when next summer rolls around they will be asked to continue on the percentage basis.

OTHER CLUBS ARE WAITING.

There is also a subdued howl coming from one manager against putting a forfeit that will be surrendered if the club fails to show up with a full team on the field. But this manager seems to be in a homesick minority, to say nothing of the fact that it is not like to happen something that was agreed upon by majority vote several weeks ago.

There are at least two clubs waiting for a chance to get into the Class A race, so the club managers will not need to waste much time waiting for any clubs that are not ready to fall into line tomorrow night.

Forfeit money must be ready tomorrow night.

Contracts of players must be turned in tomorrow night.

Managers of all clubs or their representatives must be on hand tomorrow night.

Every club must be ready to declare its final intentions tomorrow night. If there is any doubt as to a club continuing in the league, it must be ready to put up or get out tomorrow night.

The meeting is called at 8 o'clock at the Maryland Bowling alleys. It will be the last meeting before the opening of the league next Sunday.

CLIFF'S TEAM NOT SO STRONG.

Some of the boys around town are saying that Cliff Blankenship is going to put a team that is making the other clubs afraid of him before the season starts.

None of the other clubs seem worried however, and there is particular reason why they should. Blankenship has a good team, but it is not one that figures to ride roughshod over the others. In the outfield he will have Ping Bodie and Rube Gardner as his veterans, with Spencer filling in the third berth. The infield will be Bill Hard and Rod Murphy as seasoned men, with Erich Schreiber.

Manager Casavan of the Allendale Merchants of his side, Ed Hensley, have not been making much noise about the signing of any new players, and it is likely that Allendale will be represented by the same team which played all summer and proved to be one of the best amateur teams in the city. They met teams of both class A and B standing and always managed to put up a great fight with the big fellows. Their best showing was against the Oakland Parlor of Natives who tossed them out by a 4 to 2 score only after they were forced to fight until the last man.

"Babe" Menthe was pitching for the Natives at the time, which is a further boost for the Allendale Merchants, a

Champion White Sox Going to Texas for Spring Work Again

CHICAGO, Oct. 30. — President Comiskey announced there will be no change in the White Sox management next year.

This startling information was elicited from the old Roman today, following his return from a ten day sojourn in the wilds of Wisconsin, where he was host to the Woodland Bards.

Comiskey admitted that even if it did take Clarence Rowland six games to walk on the Giants in the world's series, he was going to give the "bushier" another chance next season.

The White Sox boss also said the team would train again in Mineral Wells, Texas, provided the natives there coax a little grass to grow on their baldheaded diamond. Otherwise, he intimated, San Antonio may be given the opportunity to entertain his club next spring.

New York and Boston fans will rejoice at the news that Comiskey has definitely turned down a proposition to take a joint exhibition trip with either the Giants and Braves during spring training.

Pop Anson Insisted on Hitting Pitchers

In old Cap Anson's day a pitcher was not the pampered pet he is today. He wasn't with old Pop anyway.

He can't hit or field or run bases or anything else. The men that Pop hired as pitchers were large and red-necked lads who could pound the ball into the head of a horse.

There was nothing temperamental about them and they worked when Pop told them to get out there and work.

Perhaps his pitchers had fewer substitutes and fewer "ifs" than the star hitters today, but they could lean on the pill and bring in runs and that's what Anson liked. John Tener, now president of the National League, Ad Gumbert, Jack Luby and Walter Thornton were fine samples of the pitchers Anson developed.

The best fielding record for the season so far as known was that made by the Lincoln team of the Western league which went 97 innings in August without an error being made. Included in this was a 21-inning game played and won by Lincoln.

All-Star Game to Decide Bay Rugby Honors

East Bay School Coaches Will Pick Squad to Meet Team From S. F. Schools.

University High vs. Alameda is the football bill for tomorrow. The university boys have been beaten badly at every start this year, but always put up a good scrap. In Alameda they are meeting a team that has been able to defeat only Technical high, and the score figures to be the lowest yet chalked against the university boys.

Thursday will bring the big game of the week in the Alameda County Athletic League. The yet undefeated Oakland team will meet the Berkeley boys, whose only defeat was at the hands of the probable champion Fremont fifteen. Added to the fact that the game has a vital importance in the league championship will be the old traditional fight which Oakland and Berkeley always stage. For many years Oakland and Berkeley have played the big game of the year, and even now when other high schools have rivals, the tradition of a bitter fight persists. Technical and Fremont high schools have cut into the territory out of which Oakland drew her football material in years past, but the old Twelfth-street institution still puts out great teams. This year Coach Book of Oakland has worked with almost an entire set of new men, but his team looms up as a team to be reckoned with.

It is practically assured that the champions of the Alameda County Athletic League will be the champions of the state. San Jose and Stockton are both weak in rugby this year, and Palo Alto has nothing to brag about. As for the San Francisco schools, a policy which keeps the truant schools out of the Rugby Union will prevent them from playing for the state title.

One great game that will draw bay city fans, however, is the projected all-star game between San Francisco and the east bay cities which is already being planned by the local coaches. The dif-

American Association Head Wants Clubs to Declare Intentions

CHICAGO, Oct. 30. — Because of reports that three or four clubs of the American Association plan to withdraw and merge with certain clubs in the International League, President Hickey of the American Association last night issued a call for a conference of the club owners to be held in Milwaukee next Sunday.

"If the Indianapolis, Louisville and Toledo club owners have decided to secede, it is only proper that we should know about it," Hickey said. "I know nothing officially of these reports, but we shall expect, at our Milwaukee conference, to have them either denied or admitted."

President Hickey wants an explanation of the reported movement in advance of this annual meeting of the association, which is to be held in Louisville November 12.

It looks like rain! And now that the baseball fans don't care about the weather, most of the sportsmen are pulling for a little moisture to fill up the duck ponds.

With the storms that will soon start in the north, thousands of ducks will come down from the north to take the places of those that went south when they found conditions here not to their liking. Reports from the southern part of the state say that the hunters in the Imperial Valley and around the Salton Sea are getting ducks by the thousands, but that does not do the local mirrored much good.

At you want quick hunting, put up rain here and storms in the north.

ALL-STAR GAME COMING.

It is practically assured that the champions of the Alameda County Athletic League will be the champions of the state. San Jose and Stockton are both weak in rugby this year, and Palo Alto has nothing to brag about. As for the San Francisco schools, a policy which keeps the truant schools out of the Rugby Union will prevent them from playing for the state title.

One great game that will draw bay city fans, however, is the projected all-star game between San Francisco and the east bay cities which is already being planned by the local coaches. The different rugby coaches of Alameda county will select an all-star team shortly after the league schedule closes next week.

This team will meet a like bunch from San Francisco for the benefit of the American Red Cross some time the last of this month.

FREMONT VS. "TECH" FRIDAY.

The Friday game of this week will bring together Fremont and Technical high schools. The Fremont bunch will probably go into the game too hard, and they do not wish to take any chances of injuring their players for the contest against Oakland next week. Even then the Fremont team should win with ease.

Followers of U. C. Football Cannot See Why Andy Smith Has Doubts Over Big Game

Oregon Aggies, Beaten Last Saturday, Are Stronger Than Washington Team

California hopes are high for the first "Big Game" victory in years. But Andy Smith is not so certain that the victory over Oregon Agricultural College last Saturday means a victory for the Blue and Gold against Washington this Saturday. Of course, the experts of the northwest point out that O. A. C. is stronger than Washington this year, and Coach Hunt of the Indians admits that his team is the weakest that has represented Washington in many years. It seems then that either Andy Smith is pulling some "Dobie pessimism" or has a unique way of looking at the possibilities in the big game.

BRUIN DEFENSE IMPORTANT.

But Smith is a pretty keen student of football, and can see several ways that his team can fail to register a victory. In the first place, a good forward passing team may be California's undoing. Again, if the Washington line can out-charge the Bruins, it will give them an advantage which may mean victory. Hansen, the big California center, played back on defense last week, and his star work as stopping O. A. C. line bucks was largely due to the fact that the men ahead of him were out-charging the opposition line. But if the California line fails to hold, Hansen will find that a roving line put up a better charge against the Bruins than did the Aggies, and Washington may even beat them.

Smith does not figure that his boys had such a great advantage in last week's game. Several breaks went against the California boys, and if the Oregon center had not missed a couple of passes, the Bruins might have gone scoreless. Of course no one denies that California was the best team of the two by far, but games are not always won by the team that keeps the other bunch on the defensive. Andy Smith is satisfied with the way his team is going, and believes he has the best eleven in the conference, but he is not sure that his boys have what fighters call the "finish ing punch." The Bruins play a good brand of football, and Smith is working hard this week in an endeavor to perfect some plays that his team can depend on as a few yards when they hit a critical point in the game.

SQUAD IN GOOD CONDITION.

Not a California player was injured in last Saturday's game, and the squad is in the best condition of the year so far as injuries are concerned. Captain Danny Foster is the only player whose injuries have weakened the Bruins. Andy Foster has been out of the lineup so long this season that the team has been built and his condition is now such that he can be sent into the game if it is found necessary. Charley "Vols" university trainer, has made an elaborate set of shoulder pads for Foster's injured shoulder so that he will be able to work in signal practice this week.

In spite of Coach Smith's dope on how it is possible for his team to lose, the experts are putting it down as a sure pot victory for California. The famous Washington coach, Gilman Doherty, always gave out the early season dope that his team was going to get the living daylight knocked out of them, and even late in the season ascribed their victories to luck. So Smith may be pulling a "Dobie" in his dope on next Saturday's game.

Class B Division in Mid-Winter League May Be Six-Team Affair

The race in the class B division of the east bay cities Midwinter League is going to be a six club affair unless Cliff Blankenship's Maryland Bowling Alleys tomorrow night choose teams to fill the vacancies in the class B division.

Managers of the six teams that are at present in the league, and if the managers vote for a six team league these teams can be depended upon to put up a race that would prove more interesting than an eight club league as they all appear to be evenly matched from the lists of players which have been signed by their respective managers.

Manager Casavan of the Allendale Merchants of his side, Ed Hensley, have not been making much noise about the signing of any new players, and it is likely that Allendale will be represented by the same team which played all summer and proved to be one of the best amateur teams in the city. They met teams of both class A and B standing and always managed to put up a great fight with the big fellows. Their best showing was against the Oakland Parlor of Natives who tossed them out by a 4 to 2 score only after they were forced to fight until the last man.

"Babe" Menthe was pitching for the Natives at the time, which is a further boost for the Allendale Merchants, a lendale did not play any game last Sunday, due to a death of a relative of one of the members of the club.

Jim Campbell, the Santa Fe Improver manager, announces that he has practically signed Ed Caldera, the youngster who has been twirling winning ball for the Schwartz and Grodins all season, and Sunday let the Nevada club down with three hits. If Campbell succeeds in landing Caldera he will be well taken care of the pitching line as he already has Farnsworth, who promises to make a name for himself this winter.

Another manager in the class B who is going to have very little to worry about in his pitching department is Chris Merrill of the Maxwell No. 2. Merrill already had a good steady pitcher in Oakes O'Connor, but he didn't want to be found wanting after the season had started and not to work digging up another leaver. He managed to locate in San Francisco a young fellow named Reeves, whom he gave a chance Sunday against the Maxwell Merchants, he making good with a capital G on the good. Oakes O'Connor was not with the team Sunday, he played with the Allendale Merchants and will probably pitch as he has already won six straight starts for the Maxwell.

Don't forget the final meeting before the league opening next Sunday will be held tomorrow night at Cliff Blankenship's Maryland Bowling Alleys and all managers' attendance is necessary as the contracts of players must be turned in and also the forfeit money posted. Class B managers will also have to vote whether they want a six or eight team race in the division. Once again don't forget to be at the meeting tomorrow night which is going to be called at 8 o'clock sharp as there are many things to be attended to and there will be no time wasted.

MILWAUKEE, Wis., Oct. 30. — The Wisconsin boxing commission has suspended Dan Morgan and his string of boxers, including Jack Britton, from engaging in any contests in Wisconsin for a period of six months because of Britton's failure to post a forfeit in connection with the bout between Britton and Kid Billings at Superior on October 3.

MONTREAL CLOSE AFFECTS PRICES

NEW YORK, Oct. 30.—Reports received here of the Montreal stock exchange shutting down today for one hour had a highly depressing effect on prices on the local exchange. Canadian Pacific led in the downward movement, dropping five points to 133 1/2. The weakness extended throughout the list.

Here, adopted a similar line, the Montreal exchange shut down for an hour to consider the serious war situation. Last night's closing prices were not as minimum prices for future trading on the Montreal exchange "until further notice."

FOREIGN EXCHANGE.—The movement of the action of the Montreal stock exchange in suspending business, Canadian Pacific was pressed for sale and dropped half a point between 10 and 11 o'clock to 133 1/2 against 134 1/2 at the close yesterday. Bethlehem Steel "Y" sold down three points to 75 1/2, while United States Steel showed evidence of support and after yielding over one point to 102 1/2, rallied to 103 1/2.

General Motors was in supply, selling at 83 1/2, a drop of four points. The marine issues were irregular, the preferreds selling up to new high points for the day to 103 1/2. St. Paul sold down to a new low record of 41 1/2. Declines of from one to two points were made in most of the other issues.

AFTERNOON.—A better tone was shown in the final trading, some issues selling up to new high points for the day. United States Steel moved up to 103 1/2, and gains of about one point were made in Canadian Pacific, Bethlehem Steel, and Bethlehem Steel "Y."

Canadian Pacific made a gain of two points to 135. Sales, 225,200 shares; bonds, $4,750,000.

CLOSE.—The market closed strong; government bonds steady; railway and other bonds steady.

ALL ALIENS MUST QUIT U. S. PLANTS

Orders for the summary dismissal by employers of all citizens of alien enemy countries now working on government contracts are expected to arrive here from Washington by telegraph late today for immediate execution by United States Marshal J. B. Holohan, according to information given out in the federal building this morning. The order will become effective November 1, it is said, and there will be no alternative open to employers. This will affect some 1100 men in San Francisco county and upward of one hundred additional in plants in Oakland and the bay counties.

It is said that the marshal will be instructed to intern for the period of the war any enemy aliens who are found within shipyards or other plants, whether as employees or visitors, after Thursday.

WILL ENFORCE ORDER.
The order will be enforced in every plant where a government contract is being filled.

The Union Iron Works plants on both sides of the bay will be affected the most seriously by this order. Some of their most skilled artisans, shipwrights, molders and draftsmen are Germans and Austrians who learned their trades in their native country.

The same passes which were issued by Assistant U. S. District Attorney Caspar Arnhem, permitting alien enemies to live or work within half a mile of a military installation are made void by this new order.

PASS HOLDERS SWORN.
On May 8 of this year Marshal Holohan issued formal notice that all alien enemies were required by June 1 to remove themselves from the area state within one-half mile of any fort, camp, arsenal, aircraft station, government or naval vessel, navy yard, factory or shop for the

Circular May Disrupt League Anti-Recall Move Causes Stir Names Used Not Authorized

Use of the name of the Businessmen's Anti-Recall League and of the names of members of the league, without authorization, threatens to disrupt the organization, according to statements made by members of the executive committee to friends today. At least two of the members whose names were signed to the circular prepared by supporters of Mayor John L. Davis are preparing to withdraw from the league unless some action can be taken that will effectively bar the body again being made a catspaw.

The discovery that a circular making sensational charges which members of the Businessmen's Anti-Recall League admitted could not be backed up by proof, had been issued in the name of the league without authorization on the part of the executive committee and without the knowledge of the men whose names were signed to the document, brought consternation. The circular was withdrawn after only a few of the copies had gotten into the hands of the public.

TOE VAUX MAX WITHDRAW.
It is understood that Norman De Vaux, president of the Chevrolet Company, is planning "graciously to withdraw" from the anti-recall league. De Vaux stated that he was among the five members whose names had appeared on the first circular who had not been consulted as to its contents before it was printed. After being given an opportunity to read the circular carrying his name for the first time by a newspaper reporter De Vaux said there were several things in the document to which he would not have subscribed if he had been given the opportunity to see the charges before they were printed under his name.

The circular charged specifically that a "slush fund" had been raised to finance the recall against Mayor Davis, that the holders of leases on the Oakland estuary were promoting the recall and inferentially contributing to the "slush fund," and that their reason for hatching this alleged plot to oust the mayor was to prevent the development of the western waterfront, to the detriment of the city, in order that they might buy manufacturing plants to deal with them and pay "outrageous rentals" on the estuary lands.

It was also stated that $25,000 had been raised in an hour toward a "slush fund" in "a local bank building."

DECLARED NOT TRUE.
"I know that it is not true that holders of these estuary leases are working to hamper the development of the western waterfront," said De Vaux, after reading the circular. "Arthur H. Breed, against whom it would appear this attack is at least in part directed, is an honorable man and a good citizen. He is a personal friend of mine and I know he would not put money into something to hurt the city and its development. I have no more reason to impugn the motives of the rest of these men."

As to the raising of this $25,000 in a local bank building, I know nothing of that and naturally would not set my name to it."

C. Sitterman, secretary of the California Optical Company and president of the Oakland Ad Club, whose name was used as that of secretary of the Business Men's Anti-Recall League, held a hasty conference with Preston Higgins, secretary to Mayor Davis, the only one who has so far acknowledged any connection with the direct handling of the circular. Later he was asked if he wished to add anything to his earlier statement that he had not been consulted as to the circular before it was printed and sent out for distribution.

OUT OF POLITICS.
"I'm out of politics," said Bitterman. "No more for me."

W. N. Jenkins, jeweler, also admitted that he had not been consulted, as did Robert Robertson of

"It was pretty raw," said Robertson. "I think we ought to have been consulted. I expect we will have to have some little meeting to find out how this happened."

Secretary Preston Higgins emerged from the series of conferences and telephone conversations still smiling. "There was only one mistake," said Higgins. "That was in using the names. If the circular had been sent out with just the names of the Anti-Recall League on it, it would have been all right. But they didn't want their names used, and it was a mistake to put them on. The circular would have been just as good without them."

OBJECTS OF LEAGUE.
Members of the executive committee of the Anti-Recall League explained today that the league was originally organized as a protest against any illegitimate use of the name of the league and of the names of its members in connection with the recall method of procedure of having paid soliditors seeking signatures on street corners, as the practice was and many of the use of misrepresentation. From this general stand against the recall, the body was ready to protest against the attempt to recall Mayor Davis while

SUPERVISORS TURN IN CARS AFTER MEET

County Supervisors Fred Foss and John Mullins have turned their autos into the county garage after the meeting yesterday in which the district attorney's letter, objecting to the use of county machines by Supervisors not entitled to their use, exploded like a bomb.

District Attorney W. H. L. Hynes declared that any political consideration whatever entered into the matter of his objection to the use of the automobiles and declared that he was only doing his duty when he made his objections known.

The district attorney declares that he can prove the use of county machines for private business by supervisors not even entitled under the law to incur the expense of such use. The fact that Supervisor Foss's machine shows a mileage of 3414 miles in a little over a month, before the machine was even paid for, is proof that it was used for other purposes than public business.

GIVES HISTORY.
The history of the matter is explained by Hynes' deputy, Theodore Wittschen. Prior to 1907 all the supervisors received a salary of $100 a month with an allowance of $100 for traveling expenses. Then the law was changed providing for a salary of $100 a month for each supervisor, with the express provision that no expenses should be charged to the county.

In 1915 the Legislature again changed the law, allowing expenses for road inspection to supervisors whose districts comprised more than one road.

Under this provision Supervisor Heyer was entitled to $50 a month expenses and Supervisor Murphy was entitled to $100 a month. The law does not contemplate, it was explained, that even they were entitled to use county machines as their own private property. It was their duty to use them for the purposes of the law.

Other supervisors are not entitled under the law to use the district attorney's cars. Their salary was increased with the express provision that it was to be used for the purpose of performing their duties. The claim made by Supervisors Foss and Kelley that they have been using the machines only in connection with public business is no justification, the district attorney points out. "If the supervisors are to be paid for their duties, they should show their good faith by making restitution."

PLAN GHOST FETE
Two units of Camp Fire Girls from the Golden Gate Playground and Boy Scouts of Troop 20, will hold Halloween revels tonight at the playgrounds. There will be 100 or more boys and girls in their uniforms and many of the revels have been arranged, chief among which will be the enjoyment to be obtained from a huge bonfire.

The matter was in the stage at which signatures were still to be sought. But when the citizens have brought about the recall election, several of the members of the league were inclined to go no further with the matter. Without consulting them, however, the most sensational circular which has been prepared during the recall fight was printed and sent out for distribution.

Higgins stated today that it was intended to let the members of the league inspect the circular before it was printed. But the fact that thousands of the circulars were printed and placed in the hands of a circulating agency, with orders as to when they should go out, and that these orders were not cancelled until members of the league accidentally learned of the contents of the circular and demanded that they be withdrawn, is taken to indicate that if the discovery had not been made they would have been widely circulated by today.

BIG NURSERIES HAVE NEW OWNER

The big nurseries, established more than half a century ago by the California Nursery Company at Niles, have been sold, it was learned today. The company, which is recognized as one of the best fruit and ornamental tree nurseries in the state, is a large exporter, owns more than 600 acres of choice land near Niles.

The consideration in the transaction was not made known. The nurseries have been valued at approximately $300,000. The land is in a high state of cultivation and the stock includes fine grades of fruit and nut trees, ornamentals, shrubs, palms, roses, berries and flowers.

The Landers estate was the largest stockholder in the company. H. H. Landers being president. There were numerous local stockholders on this side of the bay.

The new owners, who are said to own large nursery interests in the central part of the state, will operate the Niles plant substantially under the policy that has been successful there during the past fifty years and will continue W. V. Eberly, the manager, at the present time, in charge. The name of the purchaser has not been announced. Landers, Eberly, F. W. Hammer and A. C. Hammond are among the directors.

TOO SLOW IS SEA RAIDER'S MOTOR BOAT

Count von Luckner, commander of the famous German raider Seeadler, which was wrecked on Mohepa island August 3 as the result of the cleverness of Captain Haldor Smith of Oakland in giving misdirections for anchoring, spent a little less than a month cruising with five men in a motor launch before he was captured off the Phi Islands on September 21, according to definite information received here today. The capture had been reported some time ago from Australia, but full information did not come until now with the arrival of a trans-Pacific steamer.

After a strenuous term of piracy, the Seeadler met fate in the person of Captain Haldor Smith, commander of the American schooner R. C. Slade. The raider took him and his crew off the schooner and sent the latter to the bottom by blowing up with a bomb after the crew had been taken on board the pirate ship. The commander of the Seeadler then decided to give his men a little shore outing, as they had been away from land for eight months.

So he headed for Mohepa island, a little coral atoll about 250 miles west of Papeete and 1000 miles from Pago Pago.

It was here that Captain Haldor Smith was instrumental in putting an end to the career of the raider. The anchor dragged in the night, forcing the ship to put out to sea again, and Count von Luckner asked the advice of the American captives, who were all experienced in South Sea navigation, as to the best procedure.

Captain Smith explained to him the formation of coral reefs and told him that the only safe thing to do was to get inshore, where the coral was flat and the anchor would hold.

This advice was followed, with the result that the turn of the tide swung the stern of the ship inshore and a hole was bumped in the bottom.

CAPTAIN HALDOR SMITH

That by asking him questions in the form of a deposition, and insinuating that he had proposed marriage to Mrs. Elizabeth Hinkel, widow of the late William Hinkel, a wealthy broker, the attorney for Mrs. Hinkel is attempting to induce him to start a blackmail suit, was the explanation made by Dr. Oliver L. Jones of this city today in connection with the new development in the Hinkel litigation. Dr. Jones has been cited to appear Friday before Judge Trout in San Francisco to show cause why he refused to answer the questions.

Dr. Jones was asked by J. L. Quinlan, attorney for Mrs. Hinkel, whether Mrs. Hinkel had not made an assignment of $45,000 to him after her husband's death, with the understanding that she was to become his bride. He was also asked whether he did not have keys to both the city and country homes of Mrs. Hinkel. Dr. Jones refused to answer the questions on the advice of his attorney.

"It would have been easy to get me to bring some sort of a suit for libel or blackmail, just to prolong the litigation. Certainly I had keys to the Hinkel homes. But they were given me by Mr. Hinkel. I was his trusted friend for many years. As an executor of his estate I have carried out the will and have won the approbation of all the heirs. Whereas Mrs. Hinkel, the executrix named with me, and her attorney, will be removed if the request of the heirs is answered."

"This suit to set aside the assignment of $45,000 to me is now being brought for the third time. It has gone through about all the legal surgery it can stand, and now about to be thrown out for all time."

LIKE ELECTRIC BUTTON ON TOES

Tells Why a Corn Is so Painful and Says Cutting Makes Them Grow.

Press an electric button and you form a contact with a live wire which rings the bell. When your shoes press against your corn it pushes its sharp roots down upon a sensitive nerve and you get a shock of pain.

Instead of trimming your corns, which merely makes them grow, just step into any drug store and ask for a quarter of an ounce of freezone. This will cost very little but is sufficient to remove every hard or soft corn or callus from one's feet. A few drops applied directly upon a tender, aching corn stops the soreness instantly, and soon the corn shrivels up so it lifts right out, root and all, without pain. This drug is harmless and never inflames or even irritates the surrounding tissue or skin.—Advertisement.

Farmer Near Oakland Has Terrible Experience

"I don't think anybody ever suffered more pain than I have. Twice I was operated for gall stones and a third operation was advised. A friend in Iowa wrote me how he was cured by taking Marx's Wonderful Remedy. I took a bottle on his advice with good results and have also taken the full course. My pains are all gone and I feel I am permanently cured. It is a simple harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract, and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. One dose will convince or money refunded. Osgood's Dept. Drug Stores.—Advertisement.
